Foreword

By Hadhrat Mufti Abul Qaasim Nu'maani Saheb (Daamat Barakaatuhum)

All praise is due to Allah Ta'ala and may peace and salutations be upon His noble Rasul and Nabi صَكَانَتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ مَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ مَانَةُ مَانَعُ وَوَسَتَمَرً

I was introduced to the book "Why should we follow an Imaam?" which was recently prepared by my honourable friend, Moulana Zakaria Makada, a graduate of Madrasah Taleemuddeen, Isipingo Beach, Durban, South Africa.

The fitnah of Ghair Muqallidiyyat (abandoning the following of a mazhab) is an extremely dangerous and overwhelming fitnah of contemporary times. Generally, simple-minded youngsters as well as unwary Muslims, who are uneducated of the basics of Deen, but have the desire for practice, fall prey to this fitnah. The picture painted by those who abandon following of mazhabs seems very attractive and appealing to the layman as he is invited towards following the Qur'aan and Hadith directly opposed to following an Imaam. Furthermore, a calculated effort is being made to cause the Ummah to abandon the safe path which the Ummah treaded upon for many centuries. As a result, doubts and suspicions are instilled regarding the great Imaams, the pious of the past and at times even regarding the illustrious Sahaabah المفتات.

In this recent book, after examining Ghair Muqallidiyyat, the author has expounded on the meaning of Taqleed and following an Imaam, and has shown the safety in adopting this path.

I hope that this will assist the Ummah in understanding this topic and prove beneficial for those who have steered away from the truth.

May Allah Ta'ala accept this work and grant the author the ability to render more work and service in Deen.

Was Salaam

Foreword

By Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyas Patel Saheb (Daamat Barakaatuhum)

In every field of life there are two groups: Those who are experts of that field and those who are not. The non-experts have always followed the experts of the field. Let alone the lay-person, even the one who has some significant degree of acquaintance with the field follows the principles, guidelines and deductions from the experts of the field. A general practitioner is well trained to diagnose most illnesses and administer treatment. However, despite his years of study, he follows the principles and the deductions of the expert physicians who are recognised authorities in the field.

Allah Ta'ala has ordained the same natural procedure for Deen. Allah Ta'ala declares in the Glorious Qur'aan: "And ask those of knowledge if you do not know". Thus the foundation for Taqleed (following an expert) has been laid in the Qur'aan.

In order to highlight the importance of Taqleed and the dangers of abandoning this natural procedure in life, Moulana Zakaria Makada Saheb, an Ustaadh of Hadith at Madrasah Ta'leemuddeen, Isipingo Beach, has ably presented this treatise.

Introduction

It is the Islamic duty of every individual to search for the truth. During this search, one will come across different sects and groups, all inviting him, under the banner of Islam, to adopt their way. What should a person do at such a time? How should he distinguish and differentiate between haqq (truth) and baatil (falsehood)? In this regard, Rasulullah سَرَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمُ declared that the group who holds firmly to his way and the way of the Sahaabah رَحَوَالِيَدُ عَلَيْ وَسَالَمُ are the rightly guided ones. All other groups are deviated from the truth of Islam.

عن عبد الله بن عمرو رضي الله عنه قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ليأتين على أمتي ما أتى على بني إسرائيل حذو النعل بالنعل حتى إن كان منهم من أتى أمه علانية لكان في أمتي من يصنع ذلك وإن بني إسرائيل تفرقت على ثنتين وسبعين ملة وتفترق أمتي على ثلاث وسبعين ملة كلهم في النار إلا ملة واحدة قالوا ومن هي يا رسول الله قال ما أنا عليه وأصحابي'

It is reported from Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr رَحَوَالَيَّهُ that Rasulullah said: "My Ummah will be faced with conditions similar to those which the Bani Israaeel experienced; like a pair of shoes, one foot is identical to the other, to such an extent that if there was a situation in the Bani Israaeel where a person openly committed incest with his mother, there will be someone in my Ummah who will perpetrate such a crime. The Bani Israaeel were divided into seventy two sects, and my Ummah will be divided into seventy three sects. Each of them will be destined for Jahannam except one." The Sahaabah مَحَوَالَيَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَةُ aswed from the fire of Jahannam?" Nabi tread upon my way and the way of my Sahaabah رَحِعَالِيَّهُ عَنْهُ: "

There exist numerous groups and sects in this era and every group claims to be on the way of Rasulullah مَتَأَنَّتُمَا مَتَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَنْهُ . One is thus faced with the dilemma of deciding who he should follow. What is the criteria to determine which group is treading upon the path of Rasulullah مَتَأَنَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ Rasulullah (وَحَوَالِيَهُ عَنْهُ Rasulullah مَتَأَنَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ Rasulullah (وَحَوَالِيَهُ عَنْهُ judge who is on the correct path, as mentioned in the following Hadith:

عن أبى هريرة رضى الله عنه قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إني قد خلفت فيكم ما لن تضلوا بعدهما ما أخذتم بهما أو عملتم بمما كتاب الله وسنتي ولن تفرقا حتى يردا على الحوض (

It is reported from Hadhrat Abu Hurairah رَحَوَالِيَّهُ that Rasulullah خَرَالَتُعْمَايَدوسَلَرَ said: "I have left two sources of guidance for you to adopt. You will never be misguided as long as you hold fast to them. The first is the book of Allah and the second is my Sunnah. These two are inseparable and will meet me at the Haudh-e-Kawthar."

When we examine the lives of the four Imaams, the outstanding feature which we notice is that they strictly adhered to the book of Allah Ta'ala and the Mubaarak Sunnah of Rasulullah مَتَالَقَتُ اللهُ الل

personal opinion nor an approach of "pick and choose", as is witnessed in today's times. Hence, one can safely reach the conclusion that these four Imaams (whose mazaahib stood the test of time for approximately thirteen centuries) are worthy of emulation in guiding us to Allah Ta'ala and His Rasul صَرَالَنَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَرَامَ

This book is for those who wish to arrive at the truth with regard to the topic of Taqleed, i.e. the need to follow an Imaam in order for one to be able to correctly practice on the Qur'aan and Sunnah. It also highlights the dangers that one will face in abandoning Taqleed of one of the four Imaams and adopting the path of the Ghair Muqallideen (those who do not follow an Imaam). Insha-Allah, if this book is studied without prejudice, it will prove beneficial in creating the correct mindset and understanding of Deen within the reader.

We make du'aa that Allah Ta'ala accept this humble effort and crown it with success and divine acceptance. Aameen

The Object of man's existence

The object of man's existence on earth is to recognize, worship and serve his Creator, Allah Ta'ala. Everything else is secondary.

Worship of Allah Ta'ala is not restricted to the five pillars (Imaan, Salaah, Zakaah, Fasting and Hajj). Instead, it encompasses every facet of life, from eating to answering the call of nature, from business to marriage and from being the head of the household to being the leader of the state.

In order to teach man how to worship Allah Ta'ala in every aspect of life, by performing every action in a manner that is pleasing to Him, Allah Ta'ala sent messengers and revealed His books of guidance. The last and final messenger was Sayyiduna Rasulullah صَرَاتَتُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَرَاتُ and the last book, which was revealed upon him, was the Qur'aan. Gaining salvation in this world and the next is now only possible by following the Qur'aan and the noble Sunnah of Rasulullah صَرَاتَتُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَرَاتُ

The Qur'aan

The primary source of guidance revealed to mankind from Allah Ta'ala is the Qur'aan. The Noble Qur'aan, in its entirety, is a means of guidance for mankind at large. It (the Noble Qur'aan) comprises of incidents and events of the past nations, scenes of the Hereafter, admonishments for the evil-doers and glad-tidings for the pious, etc. Similarly, it also comprises of laws and injunctions of Shari'ah.

With regard to the verses of the Qur'aan that explain stories and events of the past nations, scenes of the Hereafter, etc., Allah Ta'ala declares:

وَ لَقَدُ يَسَّرُ نَا الْقُرَانَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلُ مِنُ مُّدَّ كِرٍ

And We have indeed made the Qur'aan easy to understand and seek advice, then is there anyone to seek advice? (Surah Qamar, 40)

As far as these verses are concerned (i.e. stories and events of the past nations), they are easily comprehendible to any person conversant in the Arabic language or even those who refer to the translations of the Holy Qur'aan. As for those verses of the Qur'aan which discuss Shar'i laws and injunctions, let alone those who are well conversant in the Arabic language, even the Sahaabah رَضَوَلَيْنَهُ عَنْهُ اللهُ مَعْلَى اللهُ ا

Referring to the Qur'aan without the Medium of Rasulullah صَلَّالَلْلَهُ عَلَيْهِوَسَلَّمَ

Amongst the many duties of prophethood assigned to Nabi مَتَأَلَنَتُعَلَيْهُوَسَلَّمَ, one of his duties was to verbally explain as well as physically demonstrate to the Ummah the details and particulars of the Shar'i laws contained in the Noble Qur'aan. Allah Ta'ala says:

وَ أَنْزَلْنَآ إِلَيْكَ الذِّكُرَ لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نُزِّلَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوْنَ

And We have sent down the Qur'aan (the reminder) to you so that you explain to the people what has been revealed for them, and so that they reflect. (Surah Nahl, 44)

For example the Noble Qur'aan declares:

وَ اَقِيْمُوا الصَّلوةَ

Establish Salaah (Surah Baqarah, 43)

If one has to study the Qur'aan in depth he will not find any details mentioned of the five fardh Salaah; viz. Fajr, Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib and Esha nor will he find the exact number of the rakaats for each Salaah. Other related aspects such as the sunan, waajibaat, faraaidh, or the factors which invalidate or decrease the spirit of the Salaah are also not mentioned. One will be compelled, to refer to the Sunnah¹ for these details since the Sunnah, in reality, is a commentary of the Qur'aan. Similar is the case of Zakaah, Saum, Hajj and the remainder injunctions of Shari'ah. Hence we understand that following the Ahaadith of Rasulullah مَكَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَمَ is akin to obeying Allah Ta'ala, as mentioned in the aayah:

مَنْ يُُطِعِ الرَّسُوْلَ فَقَدْ أَطَاعَ اللهَ

He who obeys the Rasul مَتَأَلَنَتُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمَ obeys Allah Ta'ala. (Surah Nisaa', 80)

Nabi مَتَأْتَنَهُ himself directed our attention to this point in the following Hadith:

It is reported from Hadhrat Abu Hurairah رَحَوَالِيَدُعَنَدُ that Nabi مَرَالَتَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَدَ said: "My entire Ummah will gain entry into paradise except those who reject." The Sahaabah رَحَوَالِيَدُهُ enquired: "And who are those who reject (O Nabi of Allah مَرَالَتَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَةُ replied: "Those who follow my Sunnah (way) will surely enter paradise and those who disobey me are the rejecters."

This statement of Nabi صَاَلَتَنَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَالَمَ clearly establishes the fact that one cannot gain salvation without the medium of Rasulullah صَاَلَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَالَم.

Furthermore, it is impossible for one to understand all the verses of the Qur'aan without the agency of the Ahaadith of Rasulullah مَتَأَنَّتُ مَاتَدُوسَالَمَ , even though he may be a Sahaabi (the first recipient of the Qur'aan).

With regards to the following verse of the Holy Qur'aan:

And eat and drink until the white thread of dawn appears to you distinct from its black thread. (Surah Baqarah, 187)

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim At-Taai تَعَوَّلُيَّهُ tried to apply his own intellect in understanding the intended meaning of the verse and hence reached an erroneous conclusion. Subsequently, he expressed what he understood before Rasulullah صَالَاتَ corrected him and explained the correct meaning of the verse.

This entire incident is reported by Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal کرهنهٔ الله:

وقال الإمام أحمد حدثنا هشيم أخبرنا حصين عن الشعبي أخبرني عدي بن حاتم قال لما نزلت هذه الآية (وكلوا واشربوا حتى يتبين لكم الخيط الأبيض من الخيط الأسود) عمدت إلى عقالين أحدهما أسود والآخر أبيض قال فجعلتهما تحت وسادتي قال فجعلت أنظر إليهما فلا تبين لي الأسود من الأبيض ولا الأبيض من

الأسود فلما أصبحت غدوت على رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فأخبرته بالذي صنعت فقال إن وسادك إذا لعريض إنما ذلك بياض النهار وسواد الليل

Imaam Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim رَحَوَالَيْنَا اللَّهُ related the following to me: When the above verse of the Qur'aan was revealed, I took two pieces of thread (one thread was black and the other white). I then placed both the threads beneath my pillow. I stared at the threads for a long time, expecting to see the white thread becoming more clear and visible from the black thread, so that I may then abstain from eating. However, the entire night passed and in the morning, I came to Nabi of and I expressed what I had understood from the verse and what I had done during the night. Nabi مَرَالَتُنَافَيَدَوَسَارَ smiled and remarked: "If the meaning of the verse is as you have understood, then your pillow is indeed very wide. For indeed the white and black threads implied in the verse refer to the brightness of the day and the darkness of the night."

^ا تفسير ابن كثير – سورة البقرة (۲۳۷/۱)

عن عدي بن حاتم قال: لما نزلت هذه الآية حتى يتبين لكم الخيط الأبيض من الخيط الأسود قال (عدي) أخذت عقالا أبيض وعقالا أسود فوضعتهما تحت وسادتي فنظرت فلم أتبين فذكرت ذلك لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فضحك فقال إن وسادك إذن لطويل عريض إنما هو الليل والنهار "وقال عثمان" إنما هو سواد الليل وبياض النهار. (سنن أبي داود رقم ٢٣٤٩)

The History of the Taqleed of the Four Imaams

A common question posed by many people is: "If the Ahaadith of Rasulullah سَكَانَتُ مَلَيَهُوسَتَةً are a commentary of the Noble Qur'aan, then what is the need for making Taqleed of an Imaam?"

In order to understand the answer to this question, a brief discussion of the history of the mazaahib (schools of thought) is necessary.

It is the divine system of Allah Ta'ala that He provided means for the fulfilment of every need of man. Furthermore, the means which Allah Ta'ala provides are adequate and also in proportion to the need. Consider the need for water and air. Allah Ta'ala did not only rain water from the skies, but also provided us with water from many other sources which we are able to access with relative ease. As for air, since man requires it at every moment, it has been provided in every place, free of charge, and all one needs to do is breathe. Thus Allah Ta'ala has provided for all the physical needs of man.

More important than every physical need is the spiritual need of man. He needs to recognise his creator and worship Him. This is the sole purpose of his existence on earth. Hence Allah Ta'ala instituted divine measures for the fulfilment of this greatest need of every human being.

Allah Ta'ala declares in the Glorious Qur'aan:

إِنَّا نَحُنُ نَزَّ لُنَا الَدِّكْرَ وَ إِنَّا لَهُ لَحْفِظُوْنَ

Certainly We are the ones who revealed the Qur'aan and surely We have taken the responsibility of safeguarding it. (Surah Hijr, 9)

In this verse, Allah Ta'ala explicitly and emphatically declares that He Himself has taken the responsibility of protecting the Qur'aan. For the enactment of this divine responsibility of protecting the greatest book "Al-Qur'aan", Allah Ta'ala utilized the greatest of His creation after the Ambiyaa مَتَيَهِمَ السَكَرُمُ, who were none other than the auspicious Sahaabah

The time then came for the compilation and preservation of the commentary of the Qur'aan (i.e. the Ahaadith of Rasulullah (مَتَوَالَنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّرَ). For this mammoth task, Allah Ta'ala again utilized the Sahaabah رَحْوَالِيَهُ عَنْهُمُ مَا as well as the Taabi'een and the Tab-e-Taabi'een دَرَجَهُمُوالَدَةُ.

The need thereafter arose for the compilation and preservation of the laws of the Qur'aan and Hadith. Systemizing the laws of Shari'ah required discerning and differentiating between the previous, abrogated laws and the latter laws which replaced them, deciphering between the authentic and unauthentic narrations, categorizing the status of injunctions and prohibitions (fardh, waajib, sunnah, mustahab, mubaah, haraam, makrooh-e-tahrimi, makrooh-e-tanzihi, khilaaf-e-awlaa) and finally, formulating principles in the light of Qur'aan and Hadith that govern the deduction of non-textual situations. All of the above needed to be accomplished in order to correctly practise upon each law of Shari'ah in the manner in which it was revealed by Allah Ta'ala upon Rasulullah مَتَوَاتَنَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ

The accomplishment of such a tremendous task was only possible by a selected class of Allah's servants, whose phenomenal expertise and unparalleled proficiency cover every science of Deen. This class of people are classified in the terminology of the jurists as "Mujtahideen".

There were only a limited number of these highly qualified specialists of Deen in the time of the Sahaabah رَبَخُلَيْنَهُمَا رَجَعَلَيْنَهُمَ and Tab-e-Taabi'een رَجَعَهُولَنَدُ.

From the Sahaabah زَيْنَوْأَلِنَهُ عَنْفُرُ

Among the Sahaabah رَحَوَلَيْنَهُعَامُ, the following personalities were known as the Mujtahideen:

The four Khulafaa-e-Raashideen رَحَوَلَيْهَ عَنْهُ, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Abbaas, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar, Hadhrat Mu'aaz bin Jabal and a few others رَحَالَيْهَ عَنْهُ.

From the Taabi'een and Tab-e-Taabi'een:

Among the well-known Mujtahideen of the second era were:

Imaam Abu Hanifah, Sha'bi, Ebrahim Nakhai, Alqamah, Imaam Maalik, Imaam Shaafi'ee, Imaam Ahmad, Imaam Auzaa'ee, Laith bin Sa'd and others حَهَيُراتَكُ.

Only Allah Ta'ala knows, in His infinite and unquestionable wisdom, why He hand-picked this elite group for the office of Ijtihaad. These special servants of Allah Ta'ala continued to serve the creation and water the fields of Deen. In their era, they were the centre of attraction in solving the Deeni masaa'il (questions pertaining to Deen) of the day.

The mazaahib of many of these great men were recorded for the benefit of the coming generations. However, with the passage of time, due to the various wars and other tragic situations recorded in history, the works of these Mujtahideen were no longer preserved in their entirety. Hence to date, only scattered portions of undetailed information regarding their mazhabs have been recorded. It was the divine decree of Allah Ta'ala that only the works of the four A'immah-Mujtahideen remain preserved in their entirety.

Furthermore, the latter Ulama thoroughly examined and scrutinized the mazaahib of these four Imaams in the light of Qur'aan and Hadith. For centuries thereafter, these mazaahib were tried and tested by the luminaries of Islam, the likes of Imaam Daare-Qutni, Hafiz Baihaqi, Hafiz Ibnu Hajar, Allamah Aini, Imaam Nawawi, Hafiz Zaila'ee, Imaam Tahaawi, Hafiz Ibnu Abdil Bar, Ibnul Arabi, Hafiz Ibnul Jowzi زِحَهُرُلَنَّهُ and many others.

The four mazaahib thus received the acceptance of thousands of specialists. All these doctors of their field unanimously attested to the unmatched mastery of the four Imaams and admitted their inability to produce a masterpiece mazhab that could match the mazaahib of these Imaams. These Ulama further supported and corroborated that the four mazaahib are all firmly based on the Qur'aan and Sunnah.

Hence in this time and age, for one to intend to personally review the Shari'ah and reformulate principles that govern the deduction of masaa'il, would be akin to re-inventing the wheel.

Nevertheless, the Ulama are in agreement that although the doors of Ijtihaad have not been closed, no one has met the criteria of being a Mujtahid after the third century. Those people who claimed to be on the pedestal of Ijtihaad were tested by the Ulama of the time and after being proven academically incompetent, were disqualified and rejected.

What is Taqleed?

Taqleed is to accept the view of an Imaam with confidence that his view conforms to the Qur'aan and Sunnah, though one may be unaware of the proofs of the Imaam.¹

Is Taqleed supported by the Qur'aan?

The injunction of Taqleed is established through many verses of the Qur'aan. By way of example, a few verses will be cited below:

Follow the path of those who turn to Me (Allah Ta'ala). (Surah Luqmaan, 15)

فَسْتَلُوا الْهُلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ

Ask the people of knowledge if you do not know. (Surah Nahl, 43)

يَاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ أَمَنُوًا أَطِيْعُوا اللهَ وَأَطِيْعُوا الرَّسُوْلَ وَ أُولِي الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ

^١ التقليد هو الأخذ بقول الغير بغير معرفة دليله (شرح عقود رسم المفتي ص٢٣ – قديمي كتب خانه كراتشي)

O you who believe obey Allah, the Rasul and the people of authority amongst you. (Surah Nisaa', 59)

The Mufassireen (the likes of Abu Bakr Jassaas, Allamah Aaloosi and Imaam Raazi (زَجَهُوْلَنَهُ) commentate that "ulil amr" in this verse refers to the Ulama and the Fuqahaa of the Ummah. Hence, the compulsion of Taqleed is established from this verse.

The renowned Aalim of the Ahle Hadith (those who claim to be following the Hadith), Nawaab Siddique Hasan, confirms the above commentary in his kitaab, Al-Junnah, thus saying:

According to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Abbaas رَحَوَالِنَّهُ عَنْهُ, Hadhrat Jaabir رَحَوَالِنَّهُ عَنْهُ Hasan, Abul Aaliyah, Ataa', Dahhaak, Mujaahid and Imaam Ahmad "ulil amr" in this verse refers to the Ulama.

Nawaab Siddique Hasan further states:

والتحقيق أن الأمراء إنما يطاعون إذا أمروا بمقتضي العلم فطاعتهم تبع لطاعة العلماء كما أن طاعة العلماء تبع لطاعة الرسول صلى الله عليه وسلم ^٢

· فتاوى دار العلوم زكريا ١٤١/١

^۲ فتاوى دار العلوم زكريا ۱٤١/۱

If this verse is with reference to the Islamic rulers, then too Taqleed of the Ulama cannot be disproven. The reason being that obeying the command of the rulers is subject to the approval of the Ulama, just as the rulings of the Ulama are subject to being in conformity with the teachings of Rasulullah

Is Taqleed supported by the Ahaadith of Rasulullah صَلَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّرَ

The injunction of Taqleed is supported by many Ahaadith of Rasulullah صَلَالَةُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمَ Hereunder, a few Ahaadith will be presented:

In the blessed era of Rasulullah سَلَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَلَمَ Hadhrat Mu'aaz bin Jabal مَتَوَالَنَّهُ was nominated as the governor of Yemen by Rasulullah رَحَوَالِنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ مَتَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ Rasulullah . صَلَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ to refer their Deeni issues to Hadhrat Mu'aaz مَتَوَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ . Hence, Taqleed commenced in the noble era of Rasulullah صَلَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ with the permission of Rasulullah مَتَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ

عن الأسود بن يزيد قال أتانا معاذ باليمن معلما وأميرا فسألناه عن رجل توفي وترك ابنة وأختا فقضى للإبنة بالنصف وللأخت بالنصف وفي رواية أبي داود ونبي الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يومئذ حي '

· صحيح البخاري رقم ٦٧٣٤، سنن أبي داود رقم ٢٨٩٣

وعن حذيفة قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إني لا أدري ما بقائي فيكم فاقتدوا باللذين من بعدي و اشار إلى أبي بكر وعمر '

حدثنا الحسن بن الصباح البزار حدثنا سفيان بن عيينة عن زائدة عن عبد الملك بن عمير عن ربعي عن حذيفة رضي الله عنه قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم اقتدوا باللذين من بعدي أبي بكر وعمر^٢

Hadhrat Huzaifah سَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَّهُ said: "I do not know how long I will be amongst you. Therefore, follow the two who are to come after me, Abu Bakr and Umar رَحَوْلِنَهُ عَنْهُ)."

Note: From the above-mentioned two Ahaadith we understand that Nabi مَعَالَنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّرَ did not ask the people of Yemen to directly refer to the Hadith. Instead, they were asked to refer to Hadhrat Mu'aaz for Shar'i guidance and rely upon his verdict. The reason for Nabi سَأَلَّسَ instructing the people of Yemen (and similarly, the entire Ummah) to make Taqleed is that every person is not capable of correctly extracting laws from the Qur'aan and Hadith. Referring to the Qur'aan and Hadith is the responsibility of highly qualified specialists of the Ummah, known as the A'immah-e-Mujtahideen. Accordingly, in the second Hadith, Nabi سَزَاسَةُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَارَةُ instructed us to follow the guidelines given by Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar follow the guidelines given by Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar نَصَالَتُ أَسَالُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَارَةُ heir authenticity or query their proofs, for they were completely capable of correctly deducing laws from the Qur'aan and Hadith. Rather, he asked us to merely follow what they said. In essence, this is Taqleed.

وحدثني عن مالك عن عثمان بن حفص بن خلدة عن بن شهاب عن سالم بن عبد الله عن عبد الله بن عمر رضي الله عنهما أنه سئل عن الرجل يكون له الدين على الرجل إلى أجل فيضع عنه صاحب الحق ويعجله الآخر فكره ذلك عبد الله بن عمر ونحى عنه '

Note: Moulana Ashraf Ali Thanwi ترمك فلك explained that in this narration, we find Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar نوكيك issuing a verdict without furnishing any proof for his decision. Also, the questioner did not enquire from him regarding the proof of his ruling. Instead, he relied upon Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar's روكيك الله المالي المالي المالي المالي المالي المالي المالي المالي المالي ruling since he recognised the high status and position which Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar (موكيك المالي held in the field of deducing laws from the Qur'aan and Hadith. We thus conclude that Taqleed was practised in the noble era of Rasulullah

The purpose for Nabi مَتَأَلَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ in the following manner was so that the people may realise his capability and have confidence in him. Rasulullah مَتَأَلَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ desired that the people of Yemen should refer their Deeni problems to Hadhrat Mu'aaz (مَطَالَتُهُ مَعَانَهُ مَعَانَهُ مَعَانَهُ مَعَانَهُ مَعَانَهُ مَعانَى and any decision passed by him should be readily accepted without any reservation. Otherwise, it would seem quite strange of a leader to test the governor after already nominating him at the time of bidding him farewell. For indeed Nabi مَتَوَالَتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ

حدثنا أبو قيس سمعت هزيل بن شرحبيل قال سئل أبو موسى عن إبنة وابنة ابن وأخت فقال للإبنة النصف وللأخت النصف وأت ابن مسعود فسيتابعني فسئل ابن مسعود وأخبر بقول أبي موسى فقال لقد ضللت إذا وما أنا من المهتدين أقضي فيها بما قضى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم للابنة النصف ولابنة ابن السدس تكملة الثلثين وما بقي فللأخت فأتينا أبا موسى فأخبرناه بقول ابن مسعود فقال لا تسألوني ما دام هذا الحبر فيكم ⁽

Hadhrat Abu Moosa تعَوَلَيْهُعَنَّهُ was once questioned regarding the estate of a deceased who was survived by a daughter, paternal granddaughter and sister. How should the estate be distributed? He replied saying: "Half the estate will be given to the daughter and the remaining half will be given to the sister. However, go to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood رَحَوَلَيْنَهُ for confirmation." When Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood رَحَوَلَيْنَهُ was informed of the verdict issued by Hadhrat Abu Moosa رَحَوَلَيْنَهُ عَنَهُ, he mentioned: "If this is the correct verdict, then certainly I am misled from the path of those who are rightly guided. My verdict in this issue is in conformity with the verdict of Nabi مَحَوَلَيْنَهُ عَنَهُ الله e given to the paternal granddaughter in completion of two thirds of the estate and the remainder will go to the sister." We then returned to Hadhrat Abu Moosa مَحَوَلَيْنَهُ عَنْهُ and informed him of the verdict given by Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood رَحَوَلَيْنَعَتْهُ. Thereupon he said: "As long as this great Aalim is alive, I don't see the need for you people to refer to me i.e. hold fast onto him and continue referring to him in all matters relating to Deen."

عن عمرو بن ميمون الأودي قال قدم علينا معاذ بن جبل اليمن رسول رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إلينا ... قال فألقيت عليه محبتي فما فارقته حتى دفنته بالشام ميتا ثم نظرت إلى أفقه الناس بعده فأتيت ابن مسعود فلزمته حتى مات '

Amr bin Maymoon reports that the messenger of Nabi حَوَالِيَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَّمُ , Hadhrat Mu'aaz مَحَوَالِيَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمَ came to Yemen. I loved him excessively and so remained with him until I buried him in Shaam (after his passing away). I thereafter searched for the most knowledgeable person after him. Thereupon I met Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood مَحَوَالِيَهُ and I also remained with him until the end of his life.

Ikrimah جَعَدُاللَهُ reports that the people of Madinah Munawwarah inquired from Hadhrat Abdullah bin Abbaas رَحَوَلَيْنَكَ regarding the law of a woman who experienced haidh after her fardh tawaaf (should she wait until she becomes pure in order to perform the tawaaf-e-widaa or will it fall off?). He replied that it will fall off and she may leave. Upon this the people of Madinah said: "We will not practise on your opinion, leaving out the view of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit رَحْوَالَكَ عَنْهُ."

Hafiz Ibnu Hajar, reporting from Thaqafi, narrates this statement of the inhabitants of Madinah Munawwarah in Fathul Baari in the following manner: "Whether you express your view or not, we will hold onto the view of Zaid bin Thaabit (رَعَوْلَنَهُمَاً."

Refer to the Experts

In regard to worldly affairs, the principle "refer to the experts of the field" is quite common. If a person intends constructing a triple story mansion, he will first contact an architect to draw out the plans. He will thereafter hire the services of an engineer as well as a contractor to put up the project. If one has to independently embark on such a project without the aid of the architect, the engineer and the contractor, we can well imagine the devastating outcome that he will cause for himself through such actions.

Similarly, consider the case of someone afflicted by an acute sickness e.g. cancer, cardiac failure etc. and is advised by expert physicians that if he does not undergo immediate surgery, there is a ninety to ninety five percent chance that the sickness will prove fatal. If under these life-threatening circumstances, if he has to refer to a medical journal and thereafter musters up the courage to personally operate upon himself, what will our response to his decision be? In the same breath, we see this principle upheld in all walks of life. People refer to others whom they recognize to be experts in their respective fields for guidance and assistance. In reality, this is Taqleed; "Relying upon the expertise of others".

In retrospect, when one views the different departments of Islamic learning, one will undoubtedly realize that without placing one's confidence and reliance upon people who are learned in the respective fields of Deen, one will not progress Islamically.

From the elementary Maktab¹ level, the child is required to place his confidence upon his Muallim or Muallima, thereby gaining the ability to recite the Qur'aan. At the second level, the child is admitted into a Hifz class where the child commits the Qur'aan to memory together with perfecting its recitation. At this stage, we also notice that in order for the child to progress, he is required to follow his Ustaadh and place his reliance upon the knowledge that is imparted to him. The child thereafter progresses further where he gains admission into a Darul Uloom or university. Various courses are offered to him under the tutorship of qualified teachers. Here also, he subjects his understanding to conform to the understanding of his tutors whom he recognizes as being qualified in their respective fields. At the end of the stipulated period, he receives a qualification signifying his competence and proficiency in the various fields of Deen.

¹ The elementary level where children are taught the Arabic alphabets, and then taught to recite the Qur'aan and the other basic tenets of Deen.

We understand that at every stage in the life of man, irrespective of worldly progress or Deeni progress, he is duty bound by Shari'ah to institute the principle of Taqleed.

Allah Ta'ala says:

فَسْ أَلُوا اَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ

Ask the people of knowledge if you do not know. (Surah Nahl, 43)

The crux of the matter is that currently, the experts of Deen are recognized as experts since their knowledge relatively exceeds the knowledge of the common man. Hence, they are referred to for Islamic guidance. As far as other related fields of Deen are concerned, people do not refer to them, though they might be learned in those branches of Deen. Furthermore, if the current day experts are compared to the experts of the past, they (the experts of today) will be rated below the common man of those times. This brings us to the conclusion that if we wish to follow a guide whose expertise extensively encompasses every department of Deen viz. the Qur'aan, Hadith, ijmaa', history, verdicts of Sahaabah رَعَوَاللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ إِلَيْهُ عَنْهُمْ إِ etc. then we will not find anyone of contemporary times who will be able to guide us to Allah Ta'ala other than the A'immah-e-Arba'ah, whose legacy Allah Ta'ala has preserved (from amongst all the other A'immah-e-Mujtahideen) throughout the centuries of Islam.

Why are there only four Mazhabs?

Many great Ulama of the past have clearly affirmed that Tagleed has become confined to only one of the four mazhabs. In this regard, Allamah Abdur Rahman bin Muhammad Al-Maghribi رَحْمَدُٱللَهُ (808 A.H) writes: "... Tagleed became confined to these four Imaams in all the cities of the Muslim world. All the followers of other Imaams gradually became extinct. Thus, when the terminologies of the various sciences became wide-spread in the earth, the scholars closed the doors of differences (and confined Tagleed to one of the four Imaams) as they feared that someone unworthy would begin claiming Ijtihaad. Hence they (the scholars) stated: "The ability to reach the rank of a Mujtahid has become virtually impossible." Thereupon they directed the people towards making Taqleed of one of the four Imaams and warned them against changing mazhabs for convenience, as this will amount to making a plaything of the Deen of Allah Ta'ala. Thus anyone who claims to have acquired the level of Ijtihaad in this age will be rejected and will not be followed. The entire Muslim world now has consensus regarding the Tagleed of these four Imaams."¹

The Four Imaams at a glance

Through studying the lives of the four Imaams (viz. Imaam Abu Hanifah, Imaam Maalik, Imaam Shaafi'ee, Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal (حَيْهُولْنَا) one would undoubtedly be convinced that they were worthy of the position of Imaamat. Their piety, righteousness and consistency in adhering to every teaching of the Qur'aan and Sunnah and possessing encompassing knowledge of every department of Deen had made them the centre of attraction in their eras and a source of guidance for the Ummah for centuries that followed upto this day. They could aptly be described as the bearers of the knowledge of the former people (the Sahaabah and Taabi'een). On account of this, from the millions of scholars in every field, Allah Ta'ala handpicked them and divinely selected them for the guidance of this Ummah through the centuries that passed up till this day.

رَحِمَدُأَلَنَّهُ Imaam Abu Hanifah

Introduction

Imaam Abu Hanifah's تحمَّدَاللَّهُ name was Nu'man bin Thaabit. He was born in the year 80 A.H. and passed away in the year 150 A.H.¹

Allamah Ibnu Katheer رَحْمَدُاْلَكَ (d. 774 A.H.) writes about Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحْمَدُاْلَكَ "… one of the four Imaams of the mazaahib that are followed. He was the first amongst them in demise, as he had also witnessed the era of the Sahaabah رَحَوَالِنَدَعَةُ He saw Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik رَحَوَالِنَدَعَةُ. It is related that he also met other Sahaabah زَحَوَالِنَدَعَةُ مَعْدَاً لَعْنَاً مَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً مَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَا لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَا لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَاً لَعْنَا لَ

Allamah Zahabi رَحَمَّدُانَتَهُ (d. 778 A.H.) states: "He (Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمَّدُانَتَهُ) met Hadhrat Anas رَخَوَالِيَّفَعَنْهُ on a number of occasions when he visited them in Kufah."²

Piety and Virtues

Allamah Khateeb Baghdadi تِحَمَّدُاًنَّهُ states: "It has been recorded regarding Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمَّدُانَتَهُ that he performed Fajr Salaah and Esha Salaah with the same wudhu for forty years... and it is also recorded that he completed seven thousand khatams (complete recitals) of the Qur'aan in his lifetime."¹

Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ says that on one occasion Imaam Maalik زَحْمَدُاللَّهُ was asked: "Did you meet Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ Imaam Maalik رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ replied: "Yes, Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ if he claimed a certain pillar to be made of gold, he would present sound and unbreakable proofs to establish his claim."²

Shareek جَعَالَنَهُ says: "Imaam Abu Hanifah was a person who used to observe silence for lengthy periods, and was a man of great intelligence." ³

Ibnu Ishaaq Samarqandi زَحَمَّدُاَنَتُهُ says that Imaam Abu Yusuf زَحَمَّدُاَنَتُهُ said: "Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحَمَّدُاَنَتَهُ used to complete a khatam of the Qur'aan every night in one rakaat." ⁴

Mis'ar bin Kidaam جَعَدُانَكَ says: "One night, I went into the musjid where I saw a man performing Salaah. I was taken aback by his melodious recitation of the Holy Qur'aan. When he reached the seventh juz of the Qur'aan, I thought that he would perhaps, at any moment go into ruku. However he did not until he recited one third of the Qur'aan. I then thought that he would go into ruku at the termination of half the Qur'aan, but he continued until he had recited the entire Qur'aan in one rakaat. Upon closer inspection, I realised it was Imaam Abu Hanifah ترجيدُ الله. 1

Abu Mu'ayyid Khawaarizmi رَحَمُّ أَلَنَّهُ narrates that Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mubaarak مَحَمُّ أَلَنَّهُ said: "On one occasion, a few goats were stolen in Kufah. On hearing of this, Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمُ أَلَنَّهُ enquired about the average age of a goat. When he was informed that goats normally live for up to seven years, he abstained from eating goat meat for seven years."²

Imaam Abu Hanifah جَعَدُاتَكَ was once asked: "How did you acquire this high position in Deen and the great treasures of 'ilm?" Imaam Abu Hanifah جَعَدُاتَكَ replied: "I never acted miserly with the knowledge that Allah Ta'ala had blessed me with. Instead, I always shared it with the people, and I never regard it to be below my dignity to seek knowledge from the Ulama." ³

His Mazhab

Allamah Sha'raani حَمَّالَكُ states in his kitaab 'Al-Meezaan', "I was blessed with a vision from the side of Allah Ta'ala wherein I had seen the mazaahib of the Imaams in the form of streams. I saw the mazaahib of Imaam Abu Hanifah, Imaam Maalik, Imaam Shaafi'ee, Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal حَمَّهُرَالَكُ as large streams flowing with force, while the mazaahib of the other Imaams of that era which had become extinct were small streams which later on dried up and had become hard like rocks. From the four Imaams, the Imaam whose stream was the longest was Imaam Abu Hanifah, followed by the stream of Imaam Maalik, then Imaam Shaafi'ee, then Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَحَمَّهُ اللَّهُ. The one with the shortest stream was Imaam Dawood Zaahiri رَحَمَّهُ اللَّهُ , whose mazhab was discontinued in the 5th century. I interpreted this dream as reference to the duration of time for which the different mazaahib will be practised upon."¹

Glad Tidings

Allamah Jalaalud Deen Suyooti رَحَمَّهُ اللَّهُ mentions that the Ulama have mentioned that Rasulullah سَتَأَلَّكُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ المَالِّعَ اللَّهُ المَالِّهُ المَالِّ in the following Hadith. Imaam Bukhaari and Imaam Muslim رَحَمَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ مَا اللَّهُ المُعَالِيَةُ المُعَالِيةُ المُعَالِيةُ المُعَالِيةُ المُعالِيةُ Had rate the Hadith from Hadhrat Abu Hurairah رَحَوَلَاللَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَةُ مَا اللَّهُ المُعَالِيةُ المُعَا said: "Had knowledge been at the Thurayya star, Allah Ta'ala would have created a man from Persia who would have acquired this knowledge."²

² This means that Imaam Abu Hanifah حَمَّالَنَّهُ was included in this glad tiding, though it may not have referred exclusively to him.

Allamah Suyooti رَحَمَّاًلَكَ says that this Hadith is authentic and that it is a glad tiding in favour of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمَّاً لَنَا .1

Abu Yahya Al-Himmaani زَحَمَّةُ اللَّهُ says that he heard Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحَمَّةُ اللَّهُ say: "I once saw a dream which made me very concerned. I saw that I was as though digging up the grave of Rasulullah سَتَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَتَّرَ. I then came to Basrah, and instructed a person to go and ask Muhammad bin Sireen مَتَاللَهُ عَلَيْهُوسَتَرَ, the interpretation of the dream on my behalf. Muhammad bin Sireen زَحَمَٰةُ اللَّهُ مِنَا لَقَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَتَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَمْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَمْهُ اللَّهُ , upon hearing the dream, replied: "The one who had seen the dream will be blessed by Allah Ta'ala with the bounty of gathering the Ahaadith of Rasulullah مَتَاللَّهُ عَلَيُوسَتَارًا (and the knowledge of Deen, and he will present it to the Ummah)."²

Generosity

Muthanna bin Rajaa' زَحْمَدُاللَّهُ said: "Whenever Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ would spend on his family, he would spend the same amount in charity." ³

Imaam Abu Hanifah تحمَّدُاللَّهُ used to send cash to Baghdad in order to purchase goods to be sold in Kufah. The profit would be accumulated and utilised in the food, clothing and other needs of the Muhadditheen. He would then present the remaining profit to them in the form of cash and he would tell them, "Praise Allah Ta'ala alone and not me. I have not disbursed anything from my wealth but from the wealth of Allah Ta'ala. By Allah, whatever He has bestowed upon me is your trust which He has sent to you via me."¹

Imaam Mis'ar bin Kidaam ترحمَدُاللَهُ narrates: "It was the habit of Imaam Abu Hanifah ترحمَدُاللَهُ that whatever he purchased for his family, he would spend the same amount on the senior Ulama, and whenever he purchased clothing for his family, he used to buy the same amount for the senior Ulama as well. At the onset of the fruit season, whatever he intended to purchase for his family members, he would first purchase the same for the senior Ulama."²

Principles Governing his Mazhab

Nooh Al-Jaami' زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ reports that Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ said: "We submit ourselves to whatever is reported from Rasulullah our the Sahaabah رَحَوَلَيْهُ عَدْمُ Me give them preference over the statements of others and personal logic. However, that which is reported from anyone else, then they are men and so are we. (Hence, we are not bound to accept it, instead we will employ our Ijtihaad in reaching the conclusion)." ³

His Expertise in the Field of Hadith

His expertise and proficiency in the field of Hadith can be summed up in the words of Imaam Abu Yusuf ترجمَدُاللَّهُ, who himself was a great Muhaddith and the Ustaadh of Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَجمَدُاللَّهُ. He says: "Imaam Abu Hanifah رَجمَدُاللَّهُ had much more insight regarding authentic Ahaadith than me." He further says: "I have not witnessed anyone more learned in the field of Hadith than Imaam Abu Hanifah رَجمَدُاللَهُ

Abu Muhammad Al-Haarithi جَعَدُانَكُ narrates that Imaam Abu Yusuf جَعَدُانَكُ said: "Whenever we discussed any Deeni issue with Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَدُانَكُ to which his contemporaries unanimously agreed, I would go to the Mashaayikh of Kufah to search for a clear Hadith in verification of his opinion. I would often come across two or three Ahaadith which I used to present to him in verification of his opinion. I once enquired from him regarding how he had come to know about this Hadith. He replied: 'I am well acquainted with the Ahaadith reported by the Ulama of Kufah.'"²

Abu Yaqoob, Yusuf bin Ahmad Makki, narrates that Abdullah bin Ahmad bin Ebrahim Dawraqi جَعَدُالَتَهُ said: "I was present in the gathering where Yahya bin Ma'een رَحَمَدُاللَهُ was asked about Abu Hanifah رَحَمَدُاللَهُ. He replied: 'He is reliable in terms of accepting Ahaadith from him. I have not heard any of the Muhadditheen portraying him to be unreliable. Look at Imaam Shu'bah زَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ; he writes to Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ requesting him to explain a few Ahaadith, and Shu'bah after all is Shu'bah.''' (In other words, in the field of Hadith, Imaam Shu'bah زَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ is of a very eminent rank.)¹

Imaam Abu Hanifah حَمَّنَالَتَهُ declared that a narrator should only narrate a Hadith if he remembered it thoroughly, from the day he heard it till the day he is narrating it.²

Ali bin Madeeni جَعَدُانَكَ says: "Sufyaan Thowri, Abdullah bin Mubaarak, Hammaad bin Zaid, Hishaam, Wakee' bin Jarraah, Abbaad bin Awaam and Ja'far bin Aun رَحَهُرُانَكَ have narrated Ahaadith from Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمَدُانَكَ . His Ahaadith are quite accepted by the Muhadditheen."

Shabaabah says that Shu'bah رَحْمَةُأَلَنَّهُ held a favourable opinion of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَةُأَلَنَّهُ. ³

Khateeb Baghdadi جَعَانَكَ narrates that Sufyaan bin Uyaynah جَعَانَكَ said: "The first person who accorded me a seat of honour in the field of Hadith was Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمَانَكَ When I arrived in Kufah, he openly informed the people that I am most knowledgable in regard to the Ahaadith of Amr bin Dinaar رَحَمَانَكَ . The people started gathering around me and I started teaching those Ahaadith to them." $^{\scriptscriptstyle 1}$

Sufyaan bin Uyaynah رَحْمَدُاْلَتَهُ (the Ustaadh of Imaam Shaafi'ee (رَحْمَدُاْلَتَهُ) is reported to have said: "My sight has not fallen on anyone as great as Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاْلَتَهُ."²

Hibbaan bin Moosa جَعَدُاللَهُ said: "We were once seated in the company of Abdullah bin Mubaarak رَحْمَدُانَتُهُ (the student of Imaam Abu Hanifah جَعَدُاتَكُ and one of the Ustaadhs of Imaam Bukhaari i.e. from among the narrators appearing in Bukhaari Shareef). رَجْمَةُ أَلَيَّهُ He was dictating Ahaadith to us, when he said: "Nu'maan bin Thaabit narrated to me ...". Someone asked him, "O Abu Abdir Rahmaan, who are you referring to by this name Nu'maan bin Thaabit?" He replied, "I am referring to Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ, who is a treasure house of 'ilm." Upon hearing this, some of the students terminated the copying down of this Hadith from him. Abdullah bin Mubaarak حَمَدُاللَهُ remained silent for some time, after which he remarked, "O people, how disrespectful of you! Certainly you are not aware of the status of the Imaams of Deen. Nobody is as worthy of being followed as Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَهُ. Indeed he was an Imaam. He was extremely pious and his reputation was untarnished. He was a very devout Aalim and Fageeh. He explained 'ilm with deep insight and profound understanding. He possessed unique Taqwa (i.e. Allah consciousness) that very few possess." The narrator adds: "Abdullah bin Mubaarak جَعَدُاللَهُ thereafter swore an oath that he will not teach them for another month." 1

His Expertise in the Field of Fiqh

Yahya bin Ma'een ترجمَعُاللَّهُ is reported to have said: "According to me, the most reliable and most esteemed Qiraat is the Qiraat of Hamzah while in Fiqh, it is the Fiqh of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ. I have found the predecessors holding the same view as well."²

Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحْمَدُأَلَنَّة is reported to have said about Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحْمَدُالَنَّه: "People are entirely dependent upon Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ in Fiqh."³

When Yahya bin Ma'een رَحَمُدُاللَهُ was asked whether Sufyaan Thowri ترحَمُدُاللَهُ narrated any Hadith from Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمُدُاللَهُ he said: "Surely he narrated from him. Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمُدُاللَهُ was a very reliable narrator and most truthful in expounding the laws of Fiqh. In regard to the Deen of Allah Ta'ala, he was regarded as most reliable and trustworthy."⁴

The praise of Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحْمَةُأَلَنَّهُ regarding Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحْمَةُالَنَّهُ

The leader of the Muslims, Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَة, has beautified the cities and those who reside therein.

With laws of the Qur'aan, Ahaadith of Rasulullah صَلَّاتَنَّمْعَلَيْهُوَسَنَلَمَ and the Fiqh of Deen, just like the beauty of the Qur'aan over all other heavenly scriptures.

There was no one like him in the east or west, or in the city of Kufah. So may the special mercy of Allah Ta'ala perpetually rain upon him, till the end of time, as long as the Qur'aan is recited.¹

رَحْمَهُ أَلَنَّهُ Imaam Maalik

Introduction

Imaam Maalik زَحَمُّ أَنَيَّهُ was born in the year 95 A.H., and was 15 years younger than Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحَمُّ أَنَيَّهُ. He passed away on the 14th of Rabi'ul-Awwal, 179 A.H.¹

His Expertise

Abu Nu'aim رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ narrates from Abu Mus'ab رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ: "I heard Imaam Maalik رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ say: 'I never passed a Fatwa (verdict) until seventy scholars bore testimony to the fact that I was worthy of issuing Fatwa.'"²

Allamah Zarqaani جَعَدُانَتَهُ states that Imaam Maalik رَحَمَدُانَتَهُ stated teaching Hadith at the age of seventeen. ³

Imaam Maalik تحمَدُالَتَهُ said: "I wrote one hundred thousand Ahaadith with my right hand." ⁴

Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحْمَدُاْنَكَ said: "Had it not been for Imaam Maalik and Sufyaan bin Uyaynah زَحْمَيَااْنَكَ , the knowledge of Hijaaz (Makkah Mukarramah and Madinah Tayyibah) would have been lost." ¹

Hammaad bin Salamah رَحْمَدُاْلَنَّهُ says: "If someone had to ask me to appoint a person from whom the Ummah of Rasulullah سَيَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَمَ would be able to attain knowledge, I would regard Imaam Maalik bin Anas رَحْمَدُاْلَتَهُ to be the most suitable and appropriate person for the task."²

A person once asked Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمُدُلَنَدُ , "Did you ever meet anyone like Imaam Maalik رَحَمُدُلَنَدُ ?" Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمُدُلَنَدُ replied: "I have heard some of those who were more senior than us in age and knowledge saying that they had never seen anyone like Imaam Maalik مَرَحَمُدُلَنَدُ How could we have then seen someone like him?" ³ Muthannah bin Sa'eed mentions that I heard Imaam Maalik رَحَمُدُلَنَدُ There is no night that passes except that I see Rasulullah

His Caution in Deen

Abdur Rahman bin Mahdi حَمَّدُلَنَّهُ says: "A man once asked Imaam Maalik رَحَمُالَتَهُ a mas'alah (ruling) to which he responded: "I am not sure regarding it." The man exclaimed: "I have indeed travelled to you from such and such a place to ask you about it!" Imaam Maalik responded: "When you return to your place, inform the people that I said that I am not sure of it." 1

Haitham bin Jameel زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ says: "I was present on one occasion when Imaam Maalik زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ was asked fourty eight questions, thirty two of which he answered by saying 'I do not know'."²

Glad Tidings

Allamah Jalaalud Deen Suyooti رَحَمَّةُ اللَّهُ says that the Ulama have mentioned that Rasulullah سَرَّاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّرُ had issued glad tidings in favour of Imaam Maalik رَحَمَّةُ اللَّهُ in the following manner: "Soon a time will come when people will travel lengthy journeys, beating their camels in pursuit of 'ilm. They will not find anyone as learned as the Aalim of Madinah." It is also reported, in a narration of Tirmidhi, that Rasulullah مَاللَهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمُ said: "Knowledge will be cut off, and there will not be anyone more knowledgeable than the Aalim of Madinah." Sufyaan bin Uyaynah مَاللَهُ said: "The Muhadditheen attributed these glad tidings of Rasulullah مَاللَهُ المُوسَمَاً مَاللَهُ مَاللُهُ مُنْ مُنْلُلُهُ مَاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مَاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُنْ مُنْلُهُ مُعَالُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُنْ مُنْلُلُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُنْلُلُهُ مُنْلُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ مُنْلُهُ مُنْ مُاللُهُ مُالُهُ مُاللُهُ مُاللُهُ

His Respect for Hadith

His gathering was one of great awe, forbearance and knowledge. He was a noble man who was endowed with awe and respect. There was no arguing, shouting or raising of voices in his gathering.²

Ibnu Habib زَحْمَدُاْنَةُ said: "When Imaam Maalik زَحْمَدُاْنَةُ sat to teach Hadith, no one moved from their place until he got up."

Whenever he sat down to narrate Hadith, he applied itr and donned new clothes. A carpet was set out for him on which he sat. He emerged from his house with a great amount of humility. He sat before the Hadith of Rasulullah سَتَالَقَا عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ with utmost respect and dignity. Oud used to be burnt in the gathering where the Hadith of Rasulullah سَتَالَقَا عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ

Abdullah bin Mubaarak جَعَدُالَنَّهُ said: "I was once present in the gathering of Imaam Maalik رَحَدُالَنَّهُ while he was relating Hadith to us and a scorpion stung him sixteen times. Imaam Maalik's رَحَدُالَنَّهُ facial complexion began to change colour, but he continued teaching the Hadith of Rasulullah مَتَأَلَّنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّرَ students had departed, I asked him the reason for the change in his complexion during the lesson. He then informed me of the scorpion stinging him and said, 'I did not move from my place out of respect for the Hadith of Rasulullah

Abu Mus'ab رَحْمَدُاْلَتُهُ says that Imaam Maalik رَحْمَدُاْلَتُهُ used to only narrate Hadith while in the state of wudhu, out of respect for the Hadith of Rasulullah سَيَالِتَدُعَلَيْهِ وَسَلَرَ.²

His Sincerity

Allamah Zarqaani مَحَمَّاتَكَ mentioned: "When Imaam Maalik رَحَمَّاتَكَ prepared his kitaab "Al-Muatta", he doubted his sincerity and thus feared that the kitaab may not gain acceptance in the sight of Allah Ta'ala. Hence, as a means of testing his ikhlaas, he resolved within his heart to insert the kitaab in water. In order to determine whether his kitaab was written with ikhlaas, he begged Allah Ta'ala to reveal to him in this way that if the kitaab gets wet, then it is a sign that this kitaab was not written with ikhlaas. After placing the kitaab in the water and removing it, he found it was completely dry.³

His Love and Respect for Madinah Tayyibah

It is related that he only left the Haram of Madinah Tayyibah if he had a valid reason. $^{\rm 1}$

Imaam Maalik ترجمدُاللَّهُ possessed great love for the land of Madinah Munawwarah. This love was on account of the love he had for Rasulullah مَتَأَلَّنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمُ Allamah Ibnu Khallikaan ترجمهُ اللَّهُ writes: "Imaam Maalik مَتَأَلَّنَهُ اللَّهُ اللَّ Madinah Munawwarah. Even at the time when he grew old and became extremely weak, he preferred to walk rather than being transported by a conveyance. When Imaam Maalik مَتَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ مَعْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ مَعْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ مُعْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ مُعْهُ اللَّهُ مُعْهُ اللَّهُ مُعْهُ مُعْهُ اللَّ the reason, he mentioned: 'I feel extremely difficult to ride on a conveyance in the Mubaarak city of Madinah Munawwarah, while Rasulullah مَتَالَمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمُ

Imaam Maalik زَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ used to commence teaching the students of Hadith and those residing in Madinah Munawwarah before teaching others. When he was asked the reason for showing preference to the students of Hadith and the people of Madinah, he exclaimed: "These are the neighbours of Rasulullah ."³

Important Facts regarding His Life

Imaam Maalik زَحْمَّةُ اللَّهُ resided in the house of Abdullah bin Mas'ood in Madinah Munawwarah. He did not possess his own house. Instead, he rented the house until his demise. In the musjid, he sat where Umar رَضَوَاللَّهُ عَنَهُ used to sit and this was the very same place where Rasulullah سَرَّاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمَ

رَحِمَدُٱللَّهُ Imaam Shaafi'ee

Introduction

Imaam Shaafi'ee's زَحَمُدُأَنَّذَ name was Muhammad bin Idrees. He was born in the year 150 A.H. (the very year Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمُدُأَنَّذَ passed away) and passed away in the month of Rajab, 204 A.H.²

His Expertise

Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal زَحَمَّةُ said: "Anyone who used ink and a pen (for the knowledge of Deen) is undoubtedly indebted to Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَمَّةُ لَنَّهُ in some way or the other." Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal زَحَمَّةُ لَنَّهُ also said: "For forty years I have been supplicating

He replied: "O my beloved son! Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمُدُاتَكَ was like the sun for the world and a means of safety for the people. Consider, do these two (bounties) have any substitute?" ¹

Abdur Rahmaan bin Mahdi جَعَدُانَدَ says: "I do not perform any Salaah, except that I also make du'aa for Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَدُاُلَنَهُ." ²

Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ was known by the title 'Naasirus Sunnah' (the saviour of the Sunnah) in Baghdad. Ibnu Katheer زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ says: "He memorized the Qur'aan when he was only seven, the Muatta of Imaam Maalik زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ when he was ten, and his Shaikh, Muslim bin Khallaad az-Zanji زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ, permitted him to pass verdicts (Fatwa) when he was only fifteen. (Some narrations state that he was eighteen). Abu Thowr زَحَمَّالَنَهُ, one of the Mujtahideen of that era, says: "We never saw anyone like Imaam Shaafi'ee "." ³

Abu Ubaid رَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ says: "I never saw anyone more eloquent, intelligent and cautious (referring to his state of Wara') than Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ would relate the Hadith narrated by Abu Dawood رَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ wherein Abu Hurairah رَحْمَدُالَنَّهُ reports that Rasulullah صَرَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَرَّاً

His intelligence

Imaam Muzani جَعَدُاللَّهُ reports the following incident:

We were once in the presence of Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُاللَهُ when an old man wearing woollen clothing appeared. The old man asked Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحْمَدُاللَهُ: "May I ask a question?" Imaam Shaafi'ee gave him permission. He then asked: "What are the Shar'i رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ proofs in the Deen of Allah Ta'ala?" Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمُدُاللَّهُ replied: "The Kitaab of Allah Ta'ala." He then asked: "And what else?" Imaam Shaafi'ee جَعَدُالَنَهُ replied: "The Sunnah of Rasulullah رَحِمَةُ ٱللَّهُ He then asked: "And what else?" Imaam Shaafi'ee . صَبَأَ إَلَنْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّرَ replied: "The consensus of the Ummah." He then asked: "What is your proof for this?" Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَمَدُأَنَتُهُ thought for a while. The old man then said: "I give you respite for three days. Either you bring me proof from the Qur'aan, or seek forgiveness and repent to Allah Ta'ala." The facial complexion of Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُٱللَهُ changed. Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمَدُأَلَنَهُ then left and did not appear until the third day between Zuhr and Asr, in the condition that he was extremely sick. He had hardly sat when the old man arrived, greeted him and sat beside him. He then asked whether Imaam

Shaafi'ee زَحَمُدُلْنَدُ had his proof. Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَمُدُلْنَدُ replied: "Yes", and he began reciting the verses:

And whoever opposes the Messenger after guidance has become clear to him and follows a path other than the path of the believers, we shall (forsake him) and let him continue on his path, and thereafter We shall drive him towards Hell, and evil it is as an abode. (Surah Nisaa', 115)

The man said: "You have spoken the truth." The man then left. Imaam Shaafi'ee تحمَّالَنَّهُ said to those seated around him: "I recited the entire Qur'aan thrice daily for three days, until the proof finally dawned upon me."¹

Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal جَعَدُانَتَهُ said: "A scholar of Hadith can never get satiated from studying the kitaabs of Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَمَدُانَتَهُ (due to the abundant and profound knowledge contained in it)."²

Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal حَمَّدُلَنَّهُ said: "The Fuqahaa were the doctors, and the Muhadditheen were the pharmacists. Muhammad bin Idrees (Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمَّدُلَنَّهُ) came as both, a doctor and a pharmacist." ³

Younus As-Sadafi زَحَمَّالَكُ says: "I did not see anyone more intelligent than Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحَمَّالَكُ I debated with him on one occasion regarding a certain mas'alah after which we separated. He thereafter took hold of my hand and said: 'O Abu Moosa! Let us still remain closely attached as brothers, even though I notice that we do not agree on certain issues.""²

رَحْمَهُأَلَنَّهُ The Durood of Imaam Shaafi'ee

Ibnu Bunaan Asbahaani رَحَمَّهُ اللَّهُ says that he once saw Rasulullah صَيَّالَلَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمُ in a dream and asked him, "O Rasulullah صَيَّالَلَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمَ has any special honour been granted to Muhammad bin Idrees Ash-Shaafi'ee أَنْهُ مَا اللَّهُ مَا اللَّهُ مَا اللَّهُ مَا اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّمُ who is the son of your 'uncle'? رَجْمَةُ ٱللَّهُ Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal

Introduction

Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal مَحْمَدُاًنَدًا was born in the year 164 A.H., and passed away on the morning of Friday, the 12^{th} of Rabi'ul-Awwal, 241 A.H. at the age of 77.²

His Expertise

A reputed Muhaddith, Ebrahim Al-Harbi رَحَمُاْلَكُ (d. 285 A.H.), says: "I had the opportunity of seeing Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَحَمُاْلَكُ . It seemed as if his heart was a treasure-chest containing all the knowledge granted to human beings, past and present. He could reveal whatever he saw relevant, and hold back what he did not desire to divulge." Abu Zur'ah رَحَمُالَكُ says: "Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal مَرَحَمُالَكُ was a Hafiz of one million Ahaadith." Someone asked: "How do you know?" He said: "I revised with him, and noted the chapters from him." Imaam Abdur Razzaaq رَحَمُالَكُ said: "I never saw anyone greater in Fiqh and Wara' (caution in matters of Deen) than Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal أن المعام المعام

Harmalah جَمَدُلْنَدُ has reported that he heard Imaam Shaafi'ee جَمَدُلْنَدَ say: "At the time that I left Baghdad, I did not leave any person behind who was greater than Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal جَمَدُلْنَدَ in knowledge and Fiqh."²

Ali bin Madeeni رَحْمَدُاللَهُ said: "At the time of crisis, Allah Ta'ala had supported this Deen with two personalities, with Abu Bakr رَحْمَاللَهُ عَنْهُ on the day when the tribes had turned apostate, and with Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَحْمَدُاللَهُ when the Ummah was tested with the fitnah of khalqul Qur'aan." ³

His Humility and Character

Muhammad bin Hasan bin Haroon حَمَّدُلَنَّهُ said: "I saw Abu Abdillah (Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَحَمَّدُلَنَّهُ) when he was walking. He disliked that anyone should follow him."¹

Imaam Yahya bin Ma'een جَعَدُاللَة says: "I never saw the like of Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal تَحْمَدُاللَهُ. We accompanied him for fifty years. He never once flaunted the good that he possessed."²

Trials and Tribulations

Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal خَصَالُتُ was unimaginably harassed and tortured by the rulers of his time. During Ramadhaan 221 A.H., when he was 57 years of age, he was imprisoned and lashed by Mu'tasim. This was only due to a mas'alah which he adhered to, while some of the deviant sects did not concur with it (i.e. the issue of khalqul Qur'aan). He was severely lashed eighteen times, causing him to fall unconscious. He was thereafter thrown down upon his face, a mat was placed over him, and his body was trampled. When he regained consciousness and food was placed before him, he refused to eat as he was fasting. Each one of those who took part or witnessed the lashing was forgiven by him, except those who were in deviance. He used to say: "What benefit do you derive out of your Muslim brother being punished because of you?" Later, Allah Ta'ala guided Mu'tasim, who thus repented and showed tremendous remorse over his behaviour." ¹

The Period after the Trial

The Khaleefah Mutawakkil succeeded Khaleefah Waathiq in 232 A.H. He held Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal مَحْمَدُاًتَكُ in high esteem, but Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal ترجمَدُاتَكُ remained cautious since he regarded the favours of the king as a temptation towards evil. Once, Mutawakkil sent him a bag containing ten thousand dirhams and about two hundred dinaars. It was emphasized that he should accept it, lest the king be offended if the gift was refused. Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal مَحْمَدُاتَكُ did not even look at it. At the time of Maghrib, he called his son, Saalih, and said, "Keep this by you."

Before dawn the next morning, Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal called for his son who immediately came. He said to him, "I haven't slept last night", and he began to weep. He continued, "All my life, I remained safe from the rulers and kings. Now, in old age, I am being tested with them. I have decided to distribute this wealth in the morning." That morning, he continued distributing the money to the various factions of the poor and needy until the entire amount was spent. He thereafter even gave the bag away to a destitute person. His son says: "We were experiencing such poverty (at that time) which only Allah Ta'ala knew."²

His Piety

His son, Abdullah, relates: "My father used to perform three hundred rakaat daily. When he became ill, due to the lashes which weakened him, he used to perform one hundred and fifty rakaat. At that time, he was close to eighty years of age. He used to recite oneseventh of the Qur'aan daily, thereby completing the Qur'aan in seven days. Besides the Salaah of the day, he used to complete one recital in seven nights as well. After performing Esha Salaah, he used to have a light nap after which he would remain awake until the morning, performing Salaah and making du'aa. My father performed Hajj five times, thrice on foot and twice by conveyance. On one of his journeys of Hajj, he spent only twenty dirhams." ¹

Ebrahim bin Shammaas جَحَدُلَنَّهُ says: "I knew Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal جَحَدُلَنَّهُ as a child, staying awake during the night (in Ibaadah)."²

His Adab (Respect) in Deen

Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal حَمَّدُلَكَ never called any of his Asaatidha by their names out of respect for them. Rather, he would refer to them by their titles.³

Once, Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal ترجمَعُاًمَتُهُ was lying down due to some illness. In the middle of the discussion, someone mentioned the name of Ebrahim bin Tahmaan رَحمَدُاللَهُ. On hearing this name, Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal رَحمَدُاللَهُ immediately sat up out of respect. He thereafter remarked, "It is inappropriate for the names of the elders to be mentioned whilst we are sitting and relaxing." ¹

Are there any Mujtahids in this day and age?

Allamah Shihaab Ar-Ramli رَحْمَدُاًسَدَة (957 A.H.) states: "The person who has a true understanding of what Ijtihaad actually means would feel ashamed before Allah Ta'ala to attribute it to anyone of this day and age. In fact, Ibnus Salaah رَحْمَدُاًسَدَة (643 A.H.) and his followers stated that it had become extinct three hundred years ago. Ibnus Salaah رَحْمَدُاًسَدَة himself passed away three hundred years ago. Hence, it had become extinct about six hundred years ago."

Allamah Munaawi زَحَمَّاْلَكَ (1031 A.H.) says that the Aalim of the Syrian region, Imaam Ibnu Abid-Dam زَحَمَّاْلَكَ (642 A.H.), wrote after mentioning all the conditions of Ijtihaad: "It is hardly possible to find these conditions in any scholar of our age. Instead, there is no Mujtahid-e-Mutlaq on the surface of the earth today."

During the tenth century of Islam, Allamah Suyooti رَحَمُّاْلَلَهُ (911 A.H.) claimed to have reached the level of Ijtihaad. Allamah Shihaab ibnu Hajar Haitami رَحَمُّالَكَهُ (974 A.H.) says: "When Allamah Jalalud Deen Suyooti رَحَمَّالَكَهُ claimed Ijtihaad, all his contemporaries confronted him. They presented a questionnaire to him regarding certain issues. In the questionnaire, they provided two possible answers to each question and said: "If you have reached even the lowest degree of Ijtihaad, which is Ijtihaad in Fatwa, then you should specify the preferred view, substantiated with proof, in conformance to the maxims laid down by the Mujtahideen."

However, he returned their questionnaire without any answer, excusing himself by saying that he was too busy and was therefore unable to look into those questions." ¹ Moulana Ashraf Ali Thanwi رَحْمَةُأَلَنَهُ writes in this regard: "Those who reject Tagleed object by saying: 'Did the Hanafis (or Mugallids) receive wahy (revelation) that Ijtihaad has come to an end?' They do not understand that it is a divine principle, that the means of fulfilling a need comes into existence at the time when that necessity occurs. Allah Ta'ala generally sends down rain at the time of need. Winds also blow at time of need. Where temperatures become intensely low, animals have thicker wool; and there are countless such examples. Likewise, when there was a need for the recording of Hadith, Allah Ta'ala created people with phenomenal memories. Such memories are nowhere to be found today. Even the rejecters of the four mazaahib, who shout slogans of following Hadith, are unable to bring forth one individual who has memorized even Saheeh Bukhaari and Saheeh Muslim with their chains of narrations, as was done by the illustrious authors of these blessed books.

"In the same way, when the need arose to document the Shari'ah, Allah Ta'ala granted many people extraordinary talents and capabilities in Fiqh and Ijtihaad. Now that Deen has been recorded and its laws and fundamentals outlined, this need no longer exists. Yes, to the extent of need, some ability of Ijtihaad is still to be found, whereby rulings for contemporary issues are deduced through the medium of the principles laid down by the Mujtahideen.¹

What is wrong if one refers to the Qur'aan and Hadith Directly?

If one who is not a Mujtahid refers to the Qur'aan and Hadith directly, in order to extract Shar'i laws and find solutions to his problems, he will land himself in clear disaster and encounter many difficulties. It is akin to an ignorant layman trying to find a solution to legal or medical issues by directly referring to the sources. He is bound to misunderstand many fundamental issues and bring great disaster upon himself. Let us examine some of the problems he will encounter:

The First Problem that will arise by referring directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith

The first problem is that some people will begin to consider themselves as Mujtahids. They will refer to translations of the Qur'aan and the books of Hadith (such as the translations of Saheeh Bukhaari, Saheeh Muslim, etc.). Subsequently, they will arrive at their own incorrect conclusions. This is undoubtedly detrimental to not only their own Deen, but also equally destructive to the Deen of the general public. Nabi صَلَاتَلَا عَلَى foretold the coming of such crucial times wherein people will confine the truth to their own logic and will entirely abandon emulating the pious predecessors. Hence, he is reported to have said that from amongst the signs of Qiyaamah is:

إذا رأيت شحا مطاعا وهوى متبعا ودنيا مؤثرة وإعجاب كل ذي رأي برأيه

You will witness people fulfilling their greed, following their base desires, giving preference to dunya over Deen and being satisfied with their own reasoning and understanding.

In another narration, Nabi سَتَأَنَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّرَ further mentioned:

واعجاب المرء بنفسه وهي أشدهن

A person will be satisfied and pleased with his independent reasoning and understanding, and this is among the worst signs.

Nabi مَتَأْتَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَلَّرَ has also mentioned that from amongst the signs of Qiyaamah is:

· جامع الترمذي رقم ٣٠٥٨

أشعب الإيمان رقم ٦٨٦٥

ولعن آخر هذه الأمة أولها

The latter of this Ummah will curse the former.

Consider the following two incidents which reveal the outcome of the one who is not a Mujtahid, but refers directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith. The following two incidents are narrated by Allamah Kowthari زجمَدُالَكَ. He says:

"A person was accustomed to performing Witr Salaah after making istinjaa (cleaning himself after urinating). When asked about it, he quoted the Hadith:

He who uses mud pebbles for istinja should "perform Witr"

The word فليوتر literally means 'to do something in an odd number' and could also mean 'perform Witr Salaah.' Hence, this person misunderstood this Hadith to be referring to Witr Salaah. The correct meaning of this Hadith is that the person who uses mud pebbles for istinja should use an odd number.

^١جامع الترمذي رقم ٢٢١٠ وقال الإمام الترمذي رحمه الله : هذا حديث غريب لا نعرفه من حديث علي بن أبي طالب إلا من هذا الوجه ولا نعلم أحدا رواه عن يحيى بن سعيد الأنصاري غير الفرج بن فضالة و الفرج بن فضالة قد تكلم فيه بعض أهل الحديث وضعفه من قبل حفظه وقد رواه عنه وكيع وغير واحد من الأئمة وسكت عنه الحافظ في هداية الرواة ١١٨/٥ تصحيح البخاري رقم ١٦٢/١٦١ ، صحيح مسلم رقم ٥٦٠ Another person declared that it was forbidden to water one's neighbour's garden. He substantiated it by quoting the following Hadith:

لا يحل لامرئ يؤمن بالله واليوم الآخر أن يسقي ماءه زرع غيره`

It is not permitted for one who believes in Allah and the last day to irrigate someone else's crop with his own water.

The Hadith actually implies that if someone acquired a pregnant slave woman (when slavery was still in practise), then he is prohibited from copulating with her until she gives birth.

The Second Problem

The second problem is that some people, after independently viewing the laws of the Qur'aan and Hadith (with their limited analogy), will begin to deduce underlying factors ('ilal) upon which rulings are based. Thereafter, they will abrogate many laws of Deen on the basis of the underlying cause that they deduced no longer existing.

For instance, consider the law of performing wudhu before every Salaah. In this time and age, a group of modernists hold the view that there is no need to perform wudhu before every Salaah, since our limbs are largely covered and do not get dirty. They contend that the law of wudhu was most relevant to the Sahaabah بعکالیک Many of the Sahaabah کمکالیک were shepherds or worked on the fields and in other outdoor occupations. As a result, their bodies became soiled in dust and dirt. Therefore, they were required to make wudhu for every Salaah. Hence, this group of modernists subjected the law of wudhu to their flawed analogy.¹

The law of appointing witnesses at the time of nikaah is a similar example. Rasulullah سَكَالَنَدْعَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمَ has declared:

لا نكاح إلا بشهود

There is no nikaah without witnesses.

Based on this and other Ahaadith, the scholars have unanimously stated that the nikaah must be witnessed by at least two people. Otherwise, it will not be valid.

Yet, some modernists opine that the nikaah is valid, regardless of whether witnesses are present or not. They comment upon the aforementioned Hadith that witnesses were only deemed necessary in the Hadith in order to alleviate any misunderstanding or denial that could crop up later on during the nikaah. However, they claim that since the nikaah is nowadays properly recorded and signed by both parties, witnesses are not necessary. Thus, on the basis of their

² As-sunanul Kubra of Imaam Bayhaqi #14016

flawed deduction of the reason for having witnesses in a nikaah, they cast aside this fundamental Shar'i requirement.¹

The Third Problem

The third problem is that some people will come across certain Ahaadith which have been unanimously abrogated (i.e. according to the consensus of the Sahaabah روالي and the entire Ummah). However, due to lack of sufficient knowledge regarding the historical background of the law, they will begin practising upon them.

Consider the Hadith which permits the practice of mut'ah.² Undoubtedly, for a limited time the Sahaabah حَوَلَيْنَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَهُ لَعْنَا لَعْنَ وَالْعُنْكَا لِعْنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنَا لَعْنَا لَكَنْ لَعْنَا لَكَنْ لَعْنَا لَكَنْ لَكَنْ لَكَنْ لَكَنْ لَكُونَ لَكَنْ لَكُونَ لَكَنْ لَكُونَ لَكُنْ لَكُنْ لَكُنْ لَكَنْ لَكُنْ لَكُنْ لَكُونَ لَكُنْ لَكُ لَكُنْ لَكُنْ لَكُنْ لَكُنْ لَ

 $^{^2}$ Mut'ah refers to a temporary marriage that was initially allowed for mujaahids who were out in jihaad but was later abrogated. A proper nikaah would be performed with the woman in the presence of witnesses and with mahr.

The following narration appears in Saheeh Muslim:

عن جابر بن عبد الله و سلمة بن الأكوع قالا خرج علينا منادي رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قد أذن لكم أن تستمتعوا الله عليه وسلم قد أذن لكم أن تستمتعوا يعني متعة النساء '

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillah and Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa' رَحَوَالِيَّهُ عَنْعُ report: "A person came out to us and announced, 'Indeed Rasulullah أَسَرَالَتَدُعَلَيْهُوَسَلَرَ has granted you permission to engage in mut'ah."

This Hadith was later abrogated by many other Ahaadith.²

From this example, we can well imagine the disastrous outcome of those who refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith. They will eventually end up following abrogated Ahaadith. It should be understood that merely finding a Hadith recorded in Saheeh Bukhaari or Saheeh Muslim or any other compilation of Hadith does not allow one to practise upon it. Just as there are certain verses recorded in the Qur'aan which are unanimously abrogated,³

^اصحیح مسلم رقم ۳٤۱۳

r عن إياس بن سلمة عن أبيه قال رخص رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم عام أوطاس في المتعة ثلاثًا ثم نحى عنها (صحيح مسلم رقم ٣٤١٨)

³ This refers to those verses whose laws have been abrogated and replaced with other laws, though the recitation of those verses has not been abrogated. An example of this would be the aayah regarding jihaad:

similarly there are many authentic Ahaadith contained in the books of Hadith (viz. Saheeh Bukhaari, Saheeh Muslim, etc.) which are also unanimously abrogated. The reason for these Ahaadith being recorded in these books was in order to prove that this law existed in the earlier era of Islam.

Hence, we conclude that any Hadith being found in the various books of Hadith will not necessarily qualify it to be practised upon. Instead, one will have to verify whether Rasulullah مَتَأَنَّتُ مَا يَدَوَسَلَمَ continued practising upon it till the end of his life or whether it was abrogated.

Combining two Salaahs in one's hometown without a valid reason

Consider the law of joining two Salaahs under normal circumstances (i.e. without any Shar'i excuse and whilst one is

كُفُّوَّااَيدِيَكُمْ وَ اَقِيْمُوا الصَّلُوةَ وَاتُوا الزَّكُوةَ

Restrain your hands from jihaad and establish Salaah and discharge Zakaah (Surah Nisaa', 77)

This law existed at the beginning of Islam when the Sahaabah مَنْسَيْعَةُ were not permitted to wage war against the Kuffaar. Later on, this law was abrogated by the following verse:

أُذِنَ لِلَّذِيْنَ يُقْتَلُونَ بِأَنَّهُمُ ظُلِمُوًا

Waging war with the kuffaar has been permitted for you on account of you being oppressed (Surah Hajj, 39) residing in his home town). The Sahaabah رَحَوَلَيْنَهُ عَنْامُ as well as the entire Ummah, for many centuries of Islam, were unanimous that it is impermissible for one to join Salaahs under normal circumstances. The Hadith of Rasulullah سَرَالَنَدْعَلَيْهُ وَسَرَّرَ Tirmidhi is explicit in this regard:

Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas حَكَلَيْتُمَايَدِوْسَلَّمَ reports that Nabi حَكَلَيْتُمَايَدِوْسَلَّمَ said: "Whoever combines two Salaahs without a valid reason has indeed committed a major sin."

However, we notice that there is another Hadith recorded by Imaam Tirmidhi مَحْمَدُلْمَةُ under the chapter entitled: "Chapter regarding the combining of two Salaahs" which states:

· جامع الترمذي رقم ١٨٨

^٢ قال أبو عيسى وحنش هو أبو على الرحبي وهو حنش بن قيس وهو ضعيف عند اهل الحديث، ضعفه أحمد وغيره

قال محمد : بلغنا عن عمر بن الخطاب أنه كتب في الآفاق ينهاهم أن يجمعوا بين الصلاتين ويخبرهم أن الجمع بين الصلاتين في وقت واحد كبيرة من الكبائر . أخبرنا بذلك الثقات عن العلاء بن الحارث عن مكحول عن ابن عباس : عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال من جمع الصلاتين من غير عذر فقد أتى بابا من أبواب الكبائر (مؤطا برواية محمد بن الحسن الشيباني، ص ١٣٢) عن ابن عباس قال : جمع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بين الظهر والعصر وبين المغرب والعشاء بالمدينة من غير خوف ولا مطر قال فقيل لابن عباس ما أراد بذلك قال أراد أن لا يحرج أمته '

Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas حَيَّاتِنَهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَنَّرُ stated: "Nabi حَيَّاتَتُهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَنَّرُ combined the Zuhr Salaah with the Asr Salaah and the Maghrib Salaah with the Esha Salaah in Madinah Munawwarah without any excuse, neither the excuse of fear nor rain." Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas مَتَوَاتَتُهُ was then questioned: "Why did Nabi مَتَاتَتُهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَلَرُ do that?" He replied: "He did this so as not to inconvenience his Ummah."

Imaam Tirmidhi تحكيّاتك comments upon this Hadith declaring: "This Hadith (the apparent meaning of this Hadith i.e. performing two Salaahs in one time whilst residing in one's home town) is not practised upon by anybody²." Hence, we understand that the entire Ummah has agreed upon the fact that it is impermissible for one to practise upon the apparent meaning of this Hadith. Despite this, we find a group of people, in this present age and time, who practise

² According to the Hanafi mazhab, this Hadith can be practised upon if interpreted in this way that Rasulullah حَرَّاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَّهُ performed both Salaahs together by performing Zuhr just before its time termintaes and Asr as soon as its time sets in, and by similarly performing Maghrib just before its time terminates and Esha as soon as its time sets in. In this way, both Salaahs would be performed in their respective times.

upon this abrogated Hadith. Thus, if someone wishes to follow whatever he comes across in the vast treasure of Hadith without examining its true position in Deen, he will certainly fall into following and practising upon abrogated Ahaadith. Such a person will consider himself as having done a great service to Deen. He will regard himself to be a reviver of a 'dead Sunnah' which nobody practised upon. However, the sad reality is that such a person has strayed from the straight path by following what the entire Ummah, from the time of the Sahaabah (مَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالَيْهُ مُعَالَيْهُ مُعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا لَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا لَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا لَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا لَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا لَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا لَعَالَيْهُ مُعَالًا مُعَ

Allah Ta'ala declares in the Holy Qur'aan:

Whoever opposes the Rasul صَيَّالَنَدُّعَلَيْهُوَسَمَّرً after the guidance was manifest to him and he follows a path other than that of the believers then We shall leave him in the path he has chosen and We will enter him into Jahannum. What an evil abode! (Surah Nisaa', 115)

At this juncture, it is extremely important for us to understand that a discontinued practice no longer remains a Sunnah or part of Deen, especially in the case where one is aware of the fact that the common practice of the Sahaabah توفيك as well as the entire Ummah opposes it. When it was neither the practice of the Sahaabah زيوك nor the rest of the Ummah, then what gives one the authority to practise upon it? Furthermore, the Hadith of Rasulullah سَالَمَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمَ

من شذ شذ في النار ا

Whoever adopts an independent path will also be alone in Jahannum.

The Fourth Problem

The fourth problem is that if the masses are allowed to randomly follow whatever they believe to be correct or whoever they feel is correct in their opinion, it will eventually result in many people following their own whims and desires. Most people, when faced with a problematic situation, opt to follow the opinion of those Muftis and Aalims through whom their benefits and interests will be secured. In that predicament, most people are totally unconcerned about studying the proofs and weighing the arguments. Rather, their main concern is how they can save their image in society or secure their commercial gain. For the sake of convenience they are prepared to hop over to any mazhab in order to achieve this objective. One should honestly ponder and contemplate over this crucial situation. Is such a person following Deen or following his nafs? Will such a person's actions be in conformity to the verse of the Qur'aan: i k = i k = 0 (Do not follow your desires.) (Surah Saad, 26) or is his action opposing this law of the Qur'aan? There are many glaring examples found in today's times which highlight this problem. Hereunder a few examples are cited:

A person is caught for exceeding the speed limit. He is given a R2000 fine by the police. He decides to look around to see whether any Aalim permits the paying of speeding fines with interest money. He is informed that a certain Aalim allows the paying of speeding fines with interest money. This person therefore feels quite satisfied that he has found some sort of justification for his actions (through the Fatwa of that specific Aalim). However, at the same time, when somebody says to him, "You are presently eating prawns. According to the Fatwa of that very Aalim, prawns have been declared makrooh-e-tahrimi. Hence you should also adhere to the ruling of that Aalim in relation to the issue of prawns."

Then he responds, "There isn't only one Aalim in the whole world. Don't you know that so and so Aalim (in whose opinion it is impermissible to pay speeding fines with interest money) declared prawns as totally permissible? So I follow that Aalim in that issue." One should consider this situation and honestly answer the following question: Will the one adopting such an approach in these matters, as well as all other Deeni issues be regarded as a sincere and steadfast believer, or will he be considered a "Fatwa Shopper" and one following his whims and desires? Hence, we conclude from this situation that the one who opts to remain unrestricted, by following what he feels appropriate and correct eventually opposes two verses of the Holy Qur'aan:

إِنَّآ أَنْزَلْنَآ إِلَيْكَ الْكِتٰبَ بِالْحَقِّ فَاعْبُدِ اللهَ مُخْلِصًا لَّهُ الدِّيْنَ

Worship Allah Ta'ala with sincerity. (Surah Zumar, 2)

وَلَا تَتَّبِعِ الْهَوٰى فَيُضِلَّكَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللهِ

Do not follow your desires. (Surah Saad, 26)

Allamah Ibnu Aabidin رَحَمَّ اللَّهُ narrated an incident that transpired in the time of Shaikh Abu Bakr Al-Jowzjaani رَحَمَّ اللَّهُ. A Hanafi Aalim proposed to marry the daughter of a person who was from the Ahle-Hadith. The father refused to accept the proposal unless he agreed to abandon his present mazhab and began practising 'Qiraat khalfal-Imaam' (reading qiraat whilst following an Imaam in Salaah) and 'Raf'ul-Yadain' (i.e. lifting his hands before and after ruku) etc. The Aalim submitted to those conditions and the nikaah took place. When Shaikh Abu Bakr رَحَمَّ اللَّهُ was asked regarding this situation, he lowered his head and remarked: "I fear that the Imaan of this man may leave him at the time of his death, due to the fact that he abandoned a practice which he regarded as Sunnah, and substituted it with a contradictory deed without any Shar'i reason, but rather for the sake of securing a woman in nikaah." ¹

· مطلب فيما إذا رتحل إلى غير مذهبه قوله (ارتحل إلى مذهب الشافعي يعزر) أي إذا كان ارتحاله لا لغرض محمود شرعا لما في التاترخانية حكى أن رجلا من أصحاب أبي حنيفة خطب إلى رجل من أصحاب الحديث

narrates a similar incident. He رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ says: "There is a village near our area wherein a man married a certain woman. It was later learnt that both of them were breastfed by the same woman (thus being foster brother and sister). A person came to enquire from me regarding what was to be done about the matter. I explained to him that this marriage is not correct, and that they should be separated. He remarked: 'This is going to be a source of immense disgrace. Please find a way for its permissibility?' I said to him: 'Firstly! There is no disgrace in separation. Rather, in living together there will be immense disgrace because people will say that you have united a brother and sister (in marriage). Secondly, even if there is disgrace, then let it be. When this is the command of the Shari'ah, then there is no question of disgrace.' The man began to say: 'But he drank the milk in infancy and then immediately vomited it out.' I replied: 'Whether he vomited it out or not, the law does not change.'

After receiving a clear answer from me, they proceeded to Delhi. There they found a man who claimed to practise on the Hadith only (without following a mazhab). It is not my object at this juncture to speak about him. Hence, to achieve their aim, they went to this person to see if their object could be fulfilled. That person ابنته في عهد أبي بكر الجوزجاني فأبى إلا أن يترك مذهبه فيقرأ خلف الإمام ويرفع يديه عند الانحطاط ونحو ذلك فأجابه فزوجه فقال الشيخ بعد ما سئل عن هذه و أطرق رأسه النكاح جائز و لكن أخاف عليه أن يذهب إيمانه وقت النزع لأنه استخف بمذهبه الذي هو حق عنده وتركه لأجل جيفة منتنة (رد المحتار ٤/٨٠/ issued a verdict that if he has consumed less than five sips, she does not become impermissible for him (to marry).

They immediately wrote out a questionnaire stating that a man drank two sips of milk from a woman during infancy. Does she become his foster mother? The answer was written (by that person) with the Hadith: لا تحرم المصة ولا المصتان (One or two sips do not create prohibition), whereas this Hadith had been abrogated through the verse of the Holy Qur'aan:

حُرِّمَتْ عَلَيْكُمْ أُمَّهْتُكُمْ وَبَنْتُكُمْ وَاَخَوْتُكُمْ وَعَمَّتُكُمْ وَخَلْتُكُمْ وَبَنْتُ الْأَخِوَبَنْتُ الْأُخْتِ وَأُمَّهْتُكُمُ الَّتِيَّ اَرْضَعْنَكُمْ وَاَخَوْتُكُمْ مِّنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ

(Forbidden upon you are your mothers, daughters, sisters, paternal aunts, maternal aunts, nieces [brother's daughters and sister's daughters], your foster mothers, and foster sisters.) (Surah Nisaa', 23)

The man became very happy and proceeded to the husband and wife and handed the Fatwa over to them saying: 'This after all is also an Aalim's Fatwa. If we practise on it, what harm will there be?""

Today, this is the kind of self-interest that is found in people. ¹

The Fifth Problem

The fifth problem is that at times due to not confining oneself to one mazhab, a person will commit the serious crime of contradicting the consensus of the Sahaabah رَحَوَالِيَّهُ عَنْمُ and the entire Ummah of Rasulullah مَسَرَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّرَ. The Qur'aanic injunctions, as well as the Ahaadith are explicit with regards to the severity of such an act. Allah Ta'ala declares:

Whoever opposes the Rasul صَيَّالَنَدُّعَلَيْهُوَسَمَّرً after the guidance was manifest to him and he follows a path other than that of the believers then We shall leave him in the path he has chosen and We will enter him into Jahannum. What an evil abode! (Surah Nisaa', 115)

In one Hadith, Nabi سَتَأَنَّدَ مَايَدوسَالَم has stated:

من شذ شذ في النار '

Whoever adopts an independent path will also be alone in Jahannum.

In yet another Hadith, Nabi سَأَلَنَةُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ has said:

لا يجمع الله أمتي على ضلالة أبدا

امستدرك حاكم رقم ۳۹٦

Allah Ta'ala will never ever cause my Ummah to unite on misguidance.

An example to illustrate the above-mentioned aspect is the question of three talaaqs issued all at once. Recently, several incidents of this nature occurred, where a person issued his wife with three talaaqs in one sitting. Upon realising his error, he wished to reconcile with his wife. However, the Ulama explained to him that his nikaah with his wife has terminated. Hence, until the Shar'i condition of halaalah does not happen, it is completely prohibited for him to continue living with the woman. The man was also informed that if they continued to live with each other, they would be living a life of zina. This person went around (in an earnest endeavour to save himself from the disgrace and embarrassment of society) asking whether any mazhab offers a solution to the present situation. He was repeatedly informed that there is consensus amongst all the four mazhabs as well as the entire Ummah from the time of the Sahaabah رَجَوْلَتَنَهُ عَنْهُمُ upon this issue. This consensus continued for seven centuries till the time of Ibnu Taimiyyah, who was responsible for breaking the consensus. This person, desperate to save his integrity and extricate himself from the embarrassment, said: "I will accept this verdict and go by it."

Hence, the one who opts to follow an isolated view which was initiated many centuries after the era of the Sahaabah رَحَوَلَنَهُ عَنْهُ (e.g.

امستدرك حاكم رقم ۳۹٦

the question of three talaaqs being considered as one talaaq or that taraaweeh is only eight rakaats and not twenty rakaats) is implying by way of inference that the entire Ummah, including the illustrious Sahaabah صَوَالَيَةُ عَنْهُ of Rasulullah مَوَالَيَةُ عَنْهُ were unaware of the true Deen, or that they were in misguidance – Allah Ta'ala Forbid. Furthermore, one will be opposing the injunction of Rasulullah مَوَالَيَةُ عَايَدُوسَالَمَ

اقتدوا بالذين من بعدي أبي بكر وعمر '

Follow the two who will come after me; Abu Bakr and Umar وَجَالِيَهُ عَنْظُ

Note: The mas'alah of three talaaqs being regarded as three is substantiated by the Qur'aan, Hadith, Aathaar (statements) of Sahaabah and Ijmaa'.

The Sixth Problem

The sixth problem is that a person who does not strictly adhere to one mazhab and instead randomly chooses the verdict of those Imaams whom he deems correct, at times opposes all mazhabs. Hence, his Ibaadat is rendered null and void according to all the Imaams.

Consider the situation where a person wishes to follow the mazhab of Imaam Ahmad حَمَدُاللَهُ in regard to the mas'alah of Raf'ul

· جامع الترمذي رقم ٣٦٦٢

Yadain during Salaah (raising the hands at the time when going into ruku' as well as coming up from ruku') and he decides to follow the mazhab of Imaam Maalik حَمَدُلْتَكُ regarding the mas'alah of irsaal (not tying the hands in the standing posture and instead leaving them to hang at his sides when reciting Surah Faatihah and a Surah). Thereafter, in the mas'alah of Qiraat khalfal-Imaam, he opts to follow the mazhab of Imaam Abu Hanifah حَمَدُاللَهُ i.e. those behind the Imaam are not allowed to recite anything, neither Surah Faatihah nor a Surah, and in the mas'alah of Qunoot of Fajr he chooses to follow Imaam Shaafi'ee زَحَمَدُأَلَنَهُ i.e. it is necessary that Qunoot be read after coming up from ruku' in the second rakaat of Fajr. This person thereafter comes to know that according to the Salafees (though not according to the four Imaams of Figh) wudhu is valid by merely making masah over nylon or cotton socks and he then performs Salaah with such a wudhu. What will we say regarding the Salaah of such a person? According to no mazhab, neither the Salafees nor the four mazhabs, will the Salaah of such a person be valid. His Salaah will be invalid according to the four Imaams on account of his wudhu being invalid, and his Salaah will be invalid according to the Salafees on account of him not reciting Surah Faatiha behind the Imaam which is necessary according to them.

Moulana Ashraf Ali Thanwi حَمَّدُاتَكَ writes: "… When the condition prevalent amongst most people is that they follow that which appeals to their personal reasoning then if they are not going to be restricted to any mazhab, their actions will definitely be based on self-interest. Their outcome will then be like that of the person who bled after having performed wudhu. According to the Hanafi mazhab, his wudhu is nullified, and according to the Shaafi'ee mazhab, his wudhu remains intact. Therefore, he decides to follow the mazhab of Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُاللَكَ in this mas'alah. Thereafter, he touches his wife and since touching one's wife nullifies one's wudhu according to the Shaafi'ee mazhab, contrary to the view of the Hanafi mazhab, he opts to follow the mazhab of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَّهُ in this mas'alah. The result of this is that none of the mazhabs regard his wudhu as valid, neither the mazhab of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَهُ nor the mazhab of Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُاللَهُ. If he performs Salaah, his Salaah will be invalid according to both mazhabs (according to Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُاللَهُ due to blood flowing from his body and according to Imaam Shaafi'ee رَحْمَدُاللَهُ due to him touching his wife). Hence, the one who adopts an attitude of following his desires in all matters of Deen remains a worshipper of his nafs (personal interests) and there will be no Deen left in his life. Such a concoction and mixture of the various mazaahib is thus impermissible according to all the Imaams.

The difference between us and the Sahaabah رسوَالله is that the primary concern of the Sahaabah رسوالله was the fear of Allah Ta'ala and commitment to Deen. Conversely, our greater concern revolves around securing our personal interests and image in society. Hence, we are prepared to compromise our Deeni values in order to secure our personal interests. We thus understand that there was no real need for the Sahaabah themselves to following one mazhab or one Imaam (considering the fact that the era in which they lived was an era replete with many Mujtahideen.)

Furthermore, through Taqleed, our Deen is completely systemized and codified (i.e. the four Imaams have extracted principles from the Qur'aan and Hadith by which they deduced laws and injunctions, thereby enabling us to understand each mas'alah of Deen in its correct perspective.) If we abandon Taqleed and follow what we deem correct, we will be de-systemizing and de-codifying our Deen. If our endeavour is to follow the most correct ruling of the four Imaams, then due to us not being capable of such a great task, we will be putting ourselves through unnecessary difficulty. If our objective is ease (by looking for concessions), then we will be enslaved to our nafs. Therefore, to maintain and preserve the consistent balance of Shari'ah, together with security against the nafs (personal interests), Taqleed is essential.¹

The Seventh Problem

The seventh problem is that some people will reject Ijtihaad totally. They will feel that there is no need for making Ijtihaad. Instead, if any problematic situation arises, one should refer directly to the

Qur'aan and Hadith in finding a solution, since Allah Ta'ala commands in the Qur'aan:

If you dispute in any matter then refer it to Allah and the Rasul صَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَّمَ if you truly believe in Allah and the last day. (Surah Nisaa', 59)

They thus wrongly deduce from this aayah that there is no need for Ijtihaad. The outcome of those who adopt this attitude is that they will be faced with one of three situations:

- 1. They will completely ignore all those aspects of Deen which are not explicitly mentioned in the Qur'aan and Sunnah but have nevertheless been derived from these sources by the Mujtahideen through Ijtihaad.
- 2. They will not find Shar'i solutions to many contemporary issues and will thus fall into suspicions and doubts regarding the truth of Islam. They will begin to feel that Islam is not a complete way of life since Shari'ah has not provided solutions to many issues.
- 3. They will consider themselves to be free to do as they wish in all matters that have not been explicitly mentioned in the Qur'aan and Sunnah. The end result of this is that they will follow their desires, thus causing them to veer astray. Allah Ta'ala says:

Do you think that We have created you in vain and that you will not be returned back to Us? (Surah Mu'minoon, 115)

For example, if we consider the mas'alah of shaving the hair, mention in the Ahaadith regarding the there is impermissibility of shaving the beard. However, there is no explicit mention in the Qur'aan as well as the Ahaadith of Rasulullah مَعَالَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّ regarding the mas'alah of shaving the hair on the cheek (i.e. above the beard) or the hair on the chest or on the calves. Similarly, there is mention in the Ahaadith regarding the mas'alah of a fly falling into milk. However, there is no explicit mention in the Qur'aan as well as the Ahaadith of Rasulullah صَالَمَة وَسَالَم regarding the mas'alah of a mosquito, flea, bee or wasp falling into milk. These masaa'il have been deduced through the Ijtihaad of the Mujtahideen. Hence, what will be the viewpoint of such individuals (who reject Ijtihaad) regarding these types of masaa'il?

A Debate between Mufti Mahmood Hasan Gangohi Saheb جَعَالَكُ – former Mufti of Darul Uloom Deoband – and a Ghair Muqallid at the Maqaam-e-Ebrahim Mufti Mahmood Saheb رَحَمُّ related that a Ghair Muqallid once met him at the Maqaam-e-Ebrahim and said: Ghair Muqallid: I have heard that you issue Fatwas. My advice to you is that you should never issue a Fatwa contrary to the Qur'aan and Hadith.

Mufti Saheb: If your advice is general then I am grateful and Jazakallah (may Allah reward you.). However, if you have come across any of my Fatwas that contradict the Qur'aan or Hadith then kindly inform me so that I may look into it. If I have erred then I shall retract.

Ghair Muqallid: I have not come across any such Fatwa. Nevertheless, I have just heard that you issue Fatwas and I therefore decided to advise you in this regard.

Mufti Saheb: Well, listen attentively to what I have to say. When a query comes before me, I refer to the Qur'aan Shareef. If I find the answer recorded in the Qur'aan then I do not turn to anything else. For example, the question regarding three talaaqs (in one sitting) came before me. When I referred to the Qur'aan Shareef I found the aayah:

Two divorces can be issued (Surah Baqarah 2:229)

After a few lines Allah Ta'ala then says:

فَانُ طَلَّقَهَا فَلَا تَحِلُّ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدُ حَتَّى تَنْكِحَ زَوْجًا غَيْرَهُ

Then if he divorces her (the third divorce) she will not be halaal for him until she marries another husband. (Surah Baqarah, 230) We understand from here that if three talaaqs are issued, all three will be valid, irrespective of whether they are issued in one sitting or separate sittings. The Qur'aan Shareef does not present any further detail in this issue. Hence, such a woman no longer remains halaal and lawful for her husband unless she undergoes the process of halaalah. Thus, in the mas'alah of three talaaqs, I issued the verdict in conformity to the Qur'aan, that the wife is totally unlawful for the husband.

If after searching through the Qur'aan Shareef, I do not find a solution to my problem, I refer to the Hadith. If I find the answer in the Hadith, then I do not refer to anything else. For example, the question regarding Qiraat khalfal-Imaam (should the muqtadi recite Surah Faatihah behind the Imaam in Salaah) was posed to me. When I searched the Qur'aan Shareef, I could not find any answer. I therefore referred to the Hadith. I came across a narration in Saheeh Muslim where Nabi مَكَالَنَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (When مَكَالَنَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ When the Imaam is engaged in giraat then the muqtadi should remain silent)¹. This Hadith is an authentic narration (Saheeh), clear in its purport (Sareeh) and it has not been abrogated (Ghair Mansookh). We clearly understand from this Hadith that it is impermissible for the muqtadi to engage in any recitation whilst the Imaam is reciting. I thus issued the Fatwa in conformity to the Hadith. Furthermore, if I do not find any solution in the Hadith then I adopt the view (Ijtihaad) of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمَدُاللَهُ.

Ghair Muqallid: It is impossible that you will not find a solution in the Hadith. If you cannot find the answer in your books, then search in the books of others.

Mufti Saheb: Who do you refer to when you say others? Must I search in the books of the Yahood and Nasaara?

Ghair Muqallid: No. Search in Bukhaari, Tirmidhi, etc.

Mufti Saheb: Why do you refer to them as the books of others? Aren't they our books as well? We study and teach their kitaabs all the time. You claim that everything is found in the Hadith whereas the Hadith itself disproves what you are saying. It appears in the Hadith رَضِوَاللَّهُعَنَّهُ that when Rasulullah سَرَا لَللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّرَ dispatched Hadhrat Mu'aaz to Yemen, he asked him, "What procedure will you adopt when passing decisions in the affairs of the Muslims?" Hadhrat Mu'aaz replied: "I will decide in accordance to the Qur'aan." Nabi رَجُوَاللَّهُ عَنَّهُ then asked him: "If a law is not found in the Qur'aan then صَيَّا لَنَدْعَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ what will you do?" He replied, "I will refer to the Ahaadith of Rasulullah سَرَّالِنَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّر Nabi سَرَّالِنَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّر then questioned him: "If the ruling is not found in the Ahaadith, then what will you do?" He replied: "I will employ my ability of reasoning (Ijtihaad) in reaching a conclusion." Upon hearing this, Nabi صَالَاتُ عَايَدوتِسَلَّر said: "All praise be تَحَالَيْتَهُعَلَيْهُوَسَلَّرَ to Allah who inspired the messenger of Rasulullah (Hadhrat Mu'aaz (رَضَوَاللَّهُ عَنْهُ) with the correct guidance."

اجامع الترمذي رقم ١٣٢٧

Ghair Muqallid: Ask me any question and I promise you that I shall furnish the answer from the Hadith.

Mufti Saheb: If you will be able to present to me a Hadith that is an authentic narration (Saheeh), clear in its purport (Sareeh) and it has not been abrogated (Ghair Mansookh) for every mas'alah that I ask, then I shall seek forgiveness for being a Hanafi and I shall abandon the Taqleed of Imaam Abu Hanifah ترجميُاللَّهُ. Well, do you have any Hadith which clearly states the permissibility or impermissibility of removing the hair on the cheek (above the beard)? Similarly, can you present before me any Hadith regarding the hair on the chest and calves?

Since there is no clear Hadith found, he became extremely embarrassed and asked, Ghair Muqallid: Do you wish to test me?

Mufti Saheb: Yes. I am testing you. Do you think that I will so easily abandon following the Hanafi mazhab? I will have to thoroughly examine you before abandoning Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَالَنَا مُنْ And adopting your way.

He became enraged at this and began walking away. I then said to him, "Excuse me, but you promised me earlier that you will present a Hadith for every mas'alah that I ask you. Fulfil your promise and don't break it, as this is a sign of a Munaafiq (Hypocrite). It is reported in the Hadith regarding the signs of a Munaafiq: إذا وعد أخلف (when he makes a promise he breaks it).¹"

The Ghair Muqallid ignored me and left. As he was leaving, I said to him, "At least make musaafahah with both hands before you depart." I then extended both my hands in response to which he stretched forth only one hand and made musaafahah (as is the way of the Ghair Muqallideen). ²

The Eighth Problem

The eighth problem is that the one who does not subscribe to any of the four mazhabs and instead refers directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith will after a period of time inevitably fall into confusion and doubt. The reason for this is that the one who is unqualified in Deen will at times come across situations where the purport of the Ahaadith seems to contradict each other.

Consider the Hadith of Rasulullah صَيَّالَنَّهُ reported in Bukhaari Shareef which explains that Rasulullah صَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّلَ his hands when going into ruku' as well as when coming up from ruku'.

 $^{^2}$ Malfoozaat of Faqeehul Ummah Mufti Mahmood Saheb زَحَمَدُأَلَنَهُ 2/297

Nabi حَيَّاتَنَّدَعَيَّدَوَسَتَلَمَ would raise his hands up to his shoulders when commencing Salaah, when saying the takbeer for ruku' and when rising from ruku'.

Opposed to this is the report of Nasaai Shareef which states that Nabi سَرَّالَتُمُعَلَيْهُوسَنَرَّ only raised his hands at the time of takbeer-etahreemah (i.e. at the commencement of the Salaah) and he did not raise his hands at any other time during the Salaah.

فلم يرفع يديه إلا مرة واحدة `

He only raised his hands once.

Similarly, the Hadith of Tirmidhi and Abu Dawood Shareef proves that Nabi مَتَأَنَّسَ also raised his hands after rising up from sajdah.

وإذا رفع رأسه من السجود أيضا رفع يديه حتى فرغ من صلاته ٦

He raised his hands when getting up from sajdah.

One will be surprised to find that all these Ahaadith are authentic.

Another example is those narrations which explain that Aameen should be said softly after Surah Faatihah:

Rasulullah ولا الضالين would say Aameen after reading صَلَّاتَنَةُ عَلَيْهُوَسَتَمَّرَ and he would lower his voice.

Other Ahaadith explain that the Aameen be said aloud.

Rasulullah مَتَأَيَّلَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ would say Aameen and he would raise his voice.

Similarly, some Ahaadith explain that it is necessary, under all circumstances, to recite Surah Faatihah in Salaah. Otherwise, the Salaah will be invalid.

لا صلاة لمن لم يقرأ بفاتحة الكتاب "

There is no Salaah for he who does not recite Surah Faatihah.

- · جامع الترمذي رقم ٢٤٨
- ^۲ سنن أبي داود رقم ۹۳۲
- ^٣ جامع الترمذي رقم ٣١١

However, other Ahaadith explain that it is necessary for the one behind the Imaam to remain silent. He is not allowed to recite anything, both in an audible and inaudible Salaah.

إذا قرأ فأنصتوا

When the Imaam recites then remain silent.

من كان له إمام فقراءة الإمام له قراءة `

The one who has an Imaam, the recitation of his Imaam will be sufficient for him. (Hence there is no need for him to recite anything behind the Imaam.)

قال محمد أخبرنا إسرائيل حدثني موسى بن أبي عائشة عن عبد الله بن شداد بن الهاد قال أم رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم في العصر قال فقرأ رجل خلفه فغمزه الذي يليه فلما أن صلى قال لم غمزتني قال كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قدامك فكرهت أن تقرأ خلفه فسمعه النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال من كان له إمام فإن قراءته له قراءة

> ^۱ صحيح مسلم رقم ۹۰۰ ^۲ سنن ابن ماجة رقم ۸۰۰ ، سنن الدارقطني ۳۲۳/۱ ^۳ الموطا للامام محمد ص ۱۰۱

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Shaddaad رَحَوَالِنَدُعَايَدُوسَنَةُرُ reports that Nabi مَتَأَلَّتَدُعَايَدُوسَنَةُ bed the Asr Salaah. During the Salaah, someone recited some Qiraat whilst following. Hence, a musalli besides him nudged him. After the Salaah, he asked the person, "Why did you nudge me?" He replied, "Nabi مَتَأَلَّتُدُعَايَدُوسَنَةً was standing in front of you and I did not like that you recite any qiraat whilst following him." Nabi مَتَأَلَّتَدُعَايَدُوسَنَةً follows an Imaam, his (the Imaam's) qiraat will suffice for him. "

It is also worth noting that all these above mentioned Ahaadith have been authentically reported by the Muhadditheen. Hence, on what basis will one who is not a Mujtahid give preference to one Hadith over the other, more so when in many cases, the chronological sequence of the laws cannot be proven in order to determine which of the laws are the former and which are the latter? What will be the basis of the judgement of such a person who is neither acquainted with the various sciences of Shari'ah, viz. Qur'aan, Hadith, Fiqh, the practices of the Sahaabah, Ijmaa', etc., and he also does not have a set of rules governing his authenticating or disauthenticating the Ahaadith, nor does he understand the factors which credit or discredit the narrator or the reasons for preferring one to the other? It is obvious that he will eventually choose one narration either on the basis of personal interests, or due to his heart inclining towards it or because it is what he sees people doing in a certain Arab country. These reasons definitely do not constitute grounds for giving preference in Shari'ah.

An interesting dialogue with a Ghair Muqallid regarding the Muqtadi reciting behind the Imaam in Salaah

Hadhrat Mufti Mahmood Gangohi زحمَدُاللَهُ was once conducting a Bukhaari Shareef lesson in Kanpur when a person entered and posed a question which was totally unrelated to the lesson. Nevertheless, the following discussion ensued between Hadhrat Mufti Saheb رَحَدُاللَهُ and the Ghair Muqallid:

Ghair Muqallid: What is your personal opinion regarding the mas'alah of Qiraat khalfal-Imaam (the muqtadi reciting behind the Imaam in Salaah)?

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: I will answer after you inform me of the mazhab to which you subscribe.

Ghair Muqallid: I am an Ahle-Hadith.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: Now you may present your question.

Ghair Muqallid: What is your personal opinion regarding the mas'alah of Qiraat khalfal-Imaam (the muqtadi reciting behind the Imaam in Salaah)?

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: Your question is quite disturbing.

Ghair Muqallid: It is strange that a mere question could disturb someone.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: Certainly! It is for this reason that the Qur'aan has forbade us from posing certain questions. Does the Qur'aan not command us:

نَائَةُهَا الَّذِيْنَ امَنُوًا لَا تَسْتَلُوًا عَنْ أَشْيَا اَنْ تُبْدَ لَكُمْ تَسُؤْ كُمْ

"O You who believe! Do not pose such questions which, if explained to you, will cause you pain." (Surah Maa'idah, 101)

Ghair Muqallid: And may I ask in which way my question disturbed you?

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: I am disturbed on account of the fact that you are enquiring about my personal opinion in this issue. Are you going to go by whatever I say? You ought to be asking what the Hadith has to say regarding this mas'alah."

Ghair Muqallid: Yes! That is exactly what I meant.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: Al-Hamdulillah! Your inner condition reveals that you consider whatever I am going to tell you to be in accordance to that which appears in the Hadith. (Therefore, you have inquired from me regarding my personal opinion.) Now that you have understood this, listen attentively! It is not compulsory for the muqtadi to recite behind the Imaam in Salaah.

Ghair Muqallid: Will you present to me your proof for saying that it is not compulsory for the muqtadi to recite behind the Imaam?

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: You have once again disturbed me through your question.

Ghair Muqallid: How is that?

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: You claim to be an Ahle-Hadith (a follower of the Hadith) whereas in this situation you have abandoned the teachings of the Hadith. The Hadith instructs the claimant to furnish proof, not the defendant. Since you are claiming that it is compulsory for the muqtadi to recite behind the Imaam in Salaah, it is your duty to furnish the proof:

البينة على المدعي

Nabi سَيَّالَسَّهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَلَّمَ said: It is the duty of the claimant to produce proof in substantiation of his claim.

Hafiz Ibnus Salaah زَحَمَّةُ لَنَّهُ, in his "Muqaddamah", has categorically stated that this Hadith is a mash-hoor Hadith.

I am not the one who claims that it is compulsory for the muqtadi to recite behind the Imaam. Instead, it is you. Despite that, you still demand proof from me and act contrary to this Hadith:

البينة على المدعي

Nabi سَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَّةُ said: It is the duty of the claimant to produce proof in substantiation of his claim.

This is certainly not what is expected from a person who claims to be Ahle-Hadith (a follower of the Hadith).

السنن الكبرى للبيهقي رقم ٢١٧٣٣ ، جامع الترمذي رقم ١٣٤١

Nevertheless, I will still explain to you (why reciting behind the Imaam is not compulsory). To prove compulsion, one needs an absolutely authentic proof, known in Shari'ah as Nass-e-Qat'ee.

In our case, the proof i.e. the Hadith which establishes reciting behind the Imaam is not an absolutely authentic proof (Nass-e-Qat'ee).

Ghair Muqallid: Here's my proof ...

لا صلاة لمن لم يقرأ بفاتحة الكتاب

There is no Salaah for he who did not read Surah Faatiha.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: Inform me, in which juz of the Qur'aan does this appear? In which Surah does this verse appear? Certainly this is no verse of the Qur'aan. Instead, this is a Hadith which falls under the category of khabrul waahid. Don't you even know the meaning of an absolutely authentic proof? (دليل قطعى)

Nevertheless, since you have presented this Hadith, can you please explain how you have concluded from this Hadith that it is compulsory to recite behind the Imaam?

I have been waiting for a long time to ask the Ahle-Hadith how they conclude from this Hadith that it is compulsory for the muqtadi to recite Surah Faatihah. Consider the narration of Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit (توَالَكُوْمَاتَكَ:

^١جامع الترمذي رقم ٣١١

"Once, after the completion of the Salaah, Rasulullah صَاَلَنَهُ عَنْعُمْ enquired from the Sahaabah صَاَلَنَهُ عَنْعُمْ said: صَالَاتَهُ عَنْعُوْسَاَةً

لعلكم تقرؤون خلف إمامكم

It seems that you are reciting behind your Imaam

From this Hadith, we understand that reciting behind the Imaam was not a command of Rasulullah سَتَأَلَنْهُ عَلَيْهُوسَتَلَمَ . Similarly, we come to know that reciting behind the Imaam was not a common practice during the era of Rasulullah سَتَأَلَنْهُ عَلَيْهُوسَتَلَمَ.

Had this been the common practice of the Sahaabah رَضَوَلَيَنَهُ عَنْهُمْ the command of Rasulullah سَتَأَلَّنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَتَلَمَ Nabi سَتَأَلَّنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَتَلَمَ would have not enquired from them as to whether they were reciting behind the Imaam. Furthermore, had this been the instruction of Rasulullah سَتَأَلَنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَتَلَمَ , the companions of Rasulullah سَتَأَلَنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَتَلَمَ , would have mot enquired form ther they were reciting behind the Imaam.

"O our master صَلَّالَتَمْعَلَيْهُوَسَلَّرَ, it is as per your instruction that we are reciting behind the Imaam."

This is the very reason for which we do not find that Rasulullah مَتَأَلِّنَةُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ

جامع الترمذي رقم ٣١١

^{&#}x27;سنن أبي داود رقم ٨٢٣

they recited 'subhana rabbiyal azeem' in ruku', 'subhana rabbiyal a'ala' in sajdah or attahiyyaat?

Why didn't Nabi مَتَأَلَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّةً ask regarding these aspects? This is due to the fact that this was the general practice of the Sahaabah رَضَالَتُهُ عَنْهُمُ which everyone was carrying out as per the instruction of Nabi مَتَأَلَّتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّةً

However, in the case of reading behind the Imaam, the question was posed: "Who from amongst you were reciting behind me in Salaah?"

Some of the Sahaabah رَحَفَلَيْنَهُعَنْهُ then timorously answered: "We were reciting behind you, O Nabi سَكَانَتَهُ عَلَيْهُوسَكَمَ "Nabi سَكَانَتَهُ عَلَيْهُوسَكَمَ then said:

"Do not recite anything (behind your Imaam) with the exception of Surah Faatihah, for there is no Salaah for the one who does not recite Surah Faatihah $...^1$

Ghair Muqallid: "... You see! This is exactly what I mentioned to you!"

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "Certainly! But, allow me to explain to you the correct meaning of this Hadith. On one hand Rasulullah مَتَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَنَدَ prohibits reciting behind the Imaam through the following words: (do not recite behind the Imaam!) and on the other hand Rasulullah مَتَالَنَهُ عَلَيْهُوسَنَدَ (so we have a prohibition together with an exclusion.) Thus the prohibition denotes impermissibility whilst the exclusion denotes permissibility. We definitely understand that Rasulullah مَتَالَنَّذَعَلَيَـوَسَنَّرَ will not prevent you from doing a certain thing, and at the same time allow you to do that very same thing. So could you explain to me which thing Rasulullah مَتَالَنَّذُعَلَيَـوَسَنَّرَ is preventing us from and which thing Rasulullah مَتَالَنَّذُعَلَيَـوَسَنَّرَ is allowing us to do? If we are being allowed to recite Surah Faatihah (behind the Imaam), then what are we being prohibited from?

Ghair Muqallid: "Everything besides Surah Faatihah will be left under the prohibition. In actual fact, what I mean is that the Hadith is stopping us from reciting anything (i.e. a Surah) after Surah Faatihah, like reading some other verse or like joining another Surah to Surah Faatihah.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "Very well. Let us make i'itibaar of this Hadith. Are you familiar with the terminology of the Muhadditheen when they mention i'itibaar?

Ghair Muqallid: "Certainly, I am familiar with this terminology. I'itibaar means to accept and acknowledge something."

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: NO! This is not what i'itibaar means. According to the Muhadditheen, i'itibaar means to carry out a comprehensive study in order to gather the various chains of a certain Hadith which are recorded in the books of Hadith. The purpose of carrying out this study is so that one may be able to keep the various texts of the same Hadith before him and pass a correct judgement. Now, when making i'itibaar of this Hadith, we find that there are different wordings appearing in different Ahaadith. The following text appears in one Hadith:

لا صلاة لمن لم يقرأ بفاتحة الكتاب فصاعدا

There is no Salaah for the one who does not recite Surah Faatihah and something else (over and above Surah Faatihah).

In another text it appears:

فما زاد

There is no Salaah for the one who does not recite Surah Faatihah and something additional

In yet another text it appears:

وما تيسَّر ^٣

There is no Salaah for the one who does not recite Surah Faatihah and whatever else you find easy to recite.

^١ سنن أبي داود رقم ۸۲۲ سنن النسائي رقم ۹۱۲ ^٢سنن أبي داود رقم ۸۱۹ ۸۲۰/۸۱۹ ^۳سنن أبي داود رقم ۸۱۸ Another text reads:

There is no Salaah for the one who does not recite Surah Faatihah coupled with another Surah.

Yet another text reads:

وآيتين معها

There is no Salaah for the one who does not recite Surah Faatihah and two more verses.

Keeping all these texts before us, we understand that it is permissible for one to recite more than Surah Faatiha. Now, you explain to me that if this is the case, then what exactly are we not supposed to recite behind the Imaam?

If you have any reservations regarding the authenticity of these texts, I will show them to you from the original works.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb زَحَمَّالَنَّهُ continued: "Let us leave these questions to be answered by the learned scholars. I wish to ask you another mas'alah. Tell me, if you entered the musjid whilst the

أمجمع الزوائد رقم ٢٦٧٨

[·] جامع الترمذي رقم ٢٣٨

Imaam is in ruku', what will you do? Will you join him in ruku' or not?

If you don't join him then you (being an Ahle-Hadith) will be abandoning the Hadith which says: 'Join the Imaam in whichever posture you find him in.'

And if you do join him in ruku', then what about your Surah Faatiha?

You could recite it in ruku', but then you will be contradicting the Hadith which prohibits reciting Qur'aan in ruku'.²

You could do as some of the Ahle-Hadith do i.e. despite them joining the Imaam in ruku', they repeat the rakaat after the Imaam makes salaam. If you do accordingly, you will be abandoning the Hadith wherein Rasulullah مَتَالَنَهُمَا يَدُوسَارَ said: "Whoever joins the Imaam in ruku' has got the rakaat."³

Now tell me, how can one call himself an Ahle-Hadith when he has ignored all these Ahaadith of Rasulullah صَيَّاتَنَّ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّرً (from the Ahaadith mentioned), he has not practised on a single Hadith.

Ghair Muqallid: How do I come out of this problem? I am cornered from all sides.

² Sunan Nasaai #5181

³ Sunan Abu Dawood #893

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "What a simpleton you are! After I have cornered you from all sides, you are asking me for a way out."

Ghair Muqallid: "If you had found the Imaam in ruku', what would you do?"

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "Why are you now referring to me? Has your treasure of Ahaadith depleted? And if I do tell you, will you go by what I say?"

Ghair Muqallid: (Silent)

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "If I do tell you, will you promise to adopt Taqleed as we do?"

Ghair Muqallid: "Please don't entangle me with your arguments."

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "You have become so entangled that it seems as if there is no way out. As for me, I would simply refer the matter to Hadhrat Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَا لَكَ . I would go up to him and say: "Hadhrat! I am cornered from all sides, please show me a way out."

Imaam Abu Hanifah تحمَّالَنَهُ would say: "Son! The Hadith is explicit: "In whichever posture you find the Imaam, join him." Son! Follow the Hadith and go directly into ruku', for it is impermissible to contradict the Hadith."

Furthermore, understand O my son! The Hadith has prohibited us from reciting Qur'aan during ruku'. Hence do not recite Surah Faatihah in the state of ruku', for indeed it is a grave offence to contradict the Hadith. And my dear son! The Hadith says: Who joins the Imaam in ruku', has got the rakaat. So regard that rakaat as counted and do not repeat it. Otherwise you will be committing a serious crime by ignoring the Hadith.

I will then enquire: "O Imaam Saheb! What about the Hadith:

لا صلاة لمن لم يقرأ بفاتحة الكتاب (

There is no Salaah for he who does not recite Surah Faatiha.

Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُٱللَّهُ would reply:

Son! This Hadith refers to the one who is not behind an Imaam, e.g. someone who is performing Salaah alone or this Hadith refers to the Imaam himself.

If the Imaam or the one performing Salaah alone does not recite Surah Faatihah, the Salaah will not be complete.

As for the one following the Imaam, then there are other Ahaadith relating to him. For example the narration which says:

When the Imaam recites then remain silent.

من كان له إمام فقراءة الإمام له قراءة (

^ا جامع الترمذي رقم ۳۱۱

محيح مسلم رقم ٩٠٥

Who has an Imaam, the recitation of his Imaam will be sufficient for him (Hence there is no need for him to recite anything behind the Imaam.)

الإمام ضامن

The Imaam is made responsible for the entire congregation.

After all, there must be something of which the Imaam has taken responsibility.

Ghair Muqallid: The narrator of that Hadith is a kazzaab (liar).

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb:

إذا قرأ فأنصتوا "

When the Imaam recites then remain silent.

This Hadith is a Hadith narrated by Imaam Muslim رَحْمَةُ لَمَنَةُ in Muslim Shareef. How dare you find fault with the narrator?

Anyway, who is this narrator? Let me make a note of him. Who knows, he might appear in one of your proofs and I will use it against you.

¹جامع الترمذي رقم ٢٠٧

Ghair Muqallid: There's nothing wrong with this Hadith. I was referring to the other Hadith which says:

من كان له إمام فقراءة الإمام له قراءة ﴿

Who has an Imaam, the recitation of his Imaam will be sufficient for him (Hence there is no need for him to recite anything behind the Imaam.)

In this narration there is a kazzaab (liar).

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "And who is this kazzaab narrator?"

Ghair Muqallid: "Jaabir Ju'fi"

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "And which Muhaddith ruled Jaabir Ju'fi as a kazzaab?"

Ghair Muqallid: "Abu Hanifah"

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: Subhanallah! You mean you are actually relying upon what our Imaam Abu Hanifah حَمَّدُاتَكَ said regarding a narrator of Hadith! This is fantastic. For years people have been saying Abu Hanifah رَحَمُدُاتَكَ does not know Hadith. Today, it pleases me to hear from your mouth that Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحَمُدُاتَكَ was well acquainted with Hadith.

In fact, from your statement we also learn that Imaam Abu Hanifah جَعَدُلَنَّهُ must have written a book on Hadith in which he discussed at length the narrators of Hadith. Would you be kind enough to quote the book wherein Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُلْنَةُ had recorded this?

Ghair Muqallid: (Silent)

The Azaan of Asr was then called out and the Ghair Muqallid got up and started leaving.

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "Join us Hanafis for one Salaah at least. You may by all means recite behind the Imaam if you wish."

Ghair Muqallid: "I'm in a hurry. I have some important work."

Hadhrat Mufti Saheb: "Well, then listen to this Hadith before you leave. It appears in the narration of Sihah (authentic narrations) that whenever Shaitaan hears the Azaan he runs away whilst passing wind.¹

All objects, be it the stones, sand, etc., that are found in the vicinity until the furthest point to where the voice of the muazzin reaches will bear testimony for him on the Day of Judgement. Shaitaan therefore escapes out of fear that his name will be enlisted amongst those who will intercede for the muazzin.

At the same time, another Hadith says:

من تشبه بقوم فهو منهم

· صحيح البخاري رقم ٦٠٨ ، صحيح مسلم رقم ٨٥٦

^۲سنن أبي داود رقم ٤٠٣١

He who imitates a nation; he will be counted from amongst them.

Hence, (after hearing the Azaan) if you are going to leave in this manner without performing Salaah, you will be resembling Shaitaan.

'Awjazul Masaalik' quotes the statement of Imaam Maalik زَحْمَدُاللَّهُ:

"In wudhu, use your hand to clean your nose. Do not blow your nose in a manner which resembles the snorting of a donkey."

Hence you should not resemble Shaitaan by leaving without performing Salaah.

A Few Examples of the Disastrous Outcome of those who refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith

Moulana Sarfaraaz Khan تَحَمَّدُاتَكَ writes: "I have a sincere Deeni conscious friend whose daughter-in-law claimed to follow the Hadith. It was her practise that whenever she required a compulsory ghusal (bath) she would merely throw three handfuls of water over her body. She insisted that the Hadith of Saheeh Bukhaari only instructs one to throw three handfuls of water over the head for a fardh (obligatory) ghusl and that there is no need to pour water over the entire body. This became such a serious problem that it led to divorce. The Hadith which she referred to

 $^{^1}$ Malfoozaat of Faqeehul Ummah Mufti Mahmood Saheb زَحَمَدُأَنَتُهُ 2/303

does appear in Saheeh Bukhaari¹ wherein Rasulullah سَاَلَتْنُعَلَيْهُوَسَانَرَ said whilst indicating with both his hands: 'I pour water over my head thrice.' However, this is just one portion of the Hadith. The detailed narration, which appears in the very same chapter after a few lines, explains the procedure and says that he سَاَلَتْهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَانَةُ between the explains the procedure and says that he

A Hadith of Saheeh Bukhaari⁴ states: "An Umrah in Ramadhaan equals a Hajj with me i.e. Rasulullah سَتَوَاتَعَاتَ عَالَهُ اللهُ عَالَهُ اللهُ عَالَى اللهُ عَالَهُ اللهُ عَالَى اللهُ ال اللهُ الل

² Saheeh Bukhaari #256

³ Al-kalaamul Mufeed pg. 219

⁴ Saheeh Bukhaari #1863

⁵ Sunan Tirmidhi #586

Another real example of the above is: A man (who was going for Umrah) once came to an Aalim and said: "The Hadith says that one Salaah in Makkah Mukarramah equals one hundred thousand Salaah elsewhere.¹ So if I perform one qadhaa Salaah there, won't it compensate for all my qadhaa Salaah?" The Aalim replied: "If your deduction is correct, then not only will it compensate for your past Salaahs, rather there will be no need for you to perform any more Salaah in the future as well." He thereafter explained to him that this refers to the reward alone and not the obligation.

From these examples, we understand that referring directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith without the medium of an Imaam is detrimental to our Deen. In the first situation, the woman's ghusl was incorrect. Hence none of her Salaahs would have been accepted. In the second example, the person would have discarded the fifth pillar of Islam. In the third situation, the person would end up discarding Salaah completely.

Note: When such great luminaries in the field of Hadith, the likes of Imaam Abu Dawood and Imaam Tirmidhi رَجَهُمَالَتُهُ, who compiled books on Hadith, likewise experts like Allamah Nawawi and Hafiz Ibnu Hajar Asqalaani رَجَهُمَالَتُهُ, who prepared extensive commentaries on Saheeh Bukhaari and Saheeh Muslim (which run into volumes), confined themselves to following one of the four Imaams, then how can a layman of this era, who refers to a mere translation of these very books of Hadith, regard himself absolved of following an Imaam?

The Ninth Problem

The ninth problem is that since there exists no fifth mazhab in the world at present, those who wish to adopt a new mazhab (by directly referring to the Qur'aan and Hadith) will have to do one of two things in order to reach the correct conclusion. They will either employ their personal reasoning when they come across any apparent contradiction in the Ahaadith, or they will alternatively depend upon the verdict of a scholar of recent times. By acting upon either one of the two, what assurance do they have that the conclusion which they reach is correct? Furthermore, since they neither personally possess the required level of Deeni knowledge nor the potential to verify the exact position of the information they come across, trying to solve complex problems which relate to the chain of narrators of the Ahaadith or analysing complicated situations which have already been solved by the four Imaams and their followers will be nothing but a mockery of the Deen of Allah Ta'ala. Apart from that, the major fear that remains is that if any mistake occurs then one will be guilty of the sin of adulterating the Deen of Allah Ta'ala as the warning has been sounded in the Hadith of Rasulullah صَلَّالَة عَلَيْه وَسَلَّرَ

Hadhrat Abu Hurairah صَالَى reports that Rasulullah صَالَى said: If a person incapable of issuing verdicts in Deen issued a verdict, he will bear the sin (consequence) of the incorrect verdict he issued.

عن جابر قال خرجنا في سفر فأصاب رجلا منا حجر فشجه في رأسه فاحتلم فسأل أصحابه هل تجدون لي رخصة في التيمم قالوا ما نجد لك رخصة و أنت تقدر على الماء فاغتسل فمات فلما قدمنا على النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم أُخبر بذلك قال قتلوه قتلهم الله ألا سألوا إذا لم يعلموا فإنما شفاء العي السوال إنما كان يكفيه أن يتيمم و يعصب على جرحه خرقة ثم يمسح عليها و يغسل سائر جسده .

Hadhrat Jaabir تَعَوَّيَنَكُ reports that they were once on a journey when a person amongst them was struck by a rock and suffered severe head injuries. He then experienced a wet-dream (thus requiring ghusl). He therefore asked some of his companions if there was any concession for performing tayammum. They replied: "There is no concession for you since water is available." This Sahaabi thus took a bath and passed away (as a result of making ghusl). When they returned and Nabi مَكَانَكُ سَمَانَ مَالَكُ اللهُ عَالَي يُعَالُهُ informed of this, he said: "They killed him, may Allah kill them. Why couldn't they enquire from those who were knowledgeable when they did not know? The cure of an ailing person (an ignorant person) is to ask. It was sufficient for him to only perform tayammum and bandage his wound. He could have then rubbed his moist hand over it and wash the rest of his body."

- ' سنن أبي داود رقم ٣٦٥٧
 - ^۲ سنن أبي داود رقم ۳۳٦

Conversely, those who abide by the verdicts of one of the four A'immah-e-Mujtahideen will be rightly guided and rewarded even in a situation where a difference is found among them and irresepective of whose mazhab he abides to. If per chance the Imaam erred in his ruling (in issues where the doors of Ijtihaad have been left open) then too it will be approved in the court of Allah Ta'ala. The Hadith of Rasulullah مَتَاتَ فَعَانَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَانَدُوْسَالًا does a straight of the too it will be approved in the court of allah Ta'ala.

Hadhrat Abu Hurairah صَلَّاتَنَّعَلَيَهُوَسَلَرَ reports that Rasulullah صَلَّاتَنَّعَلَيَهُوَسَلَرَ Mujtahid employs Ijtihaad when issuing a verdict and he reaches the correct conclusion, he will receive a double reward. And if he employs Ijtihaad and errs, he will receive one reward (from Allah Ta'ala).

Furthermore, in certain situations we notice apparent contradictions between the purport of certain Ahaadith and certain verses of the Qur'aan. In order to reach the correct conclusion, the

ا جامع الترمذي رقم ١٣٢٦

A'immah-e-Mujtahideen employed their faculty of Ijtihaad and carried out a thorough analysis before adopting their mazhab. In this regard, the Ahaadith had to be examined completely and viewed from diverse angles. The chain of narrators had to be checked and the status of every narrator scrutinized. In short, several aspects had to be thoroughly examined before adopting a particular view in their mazhab.

The Tenth Problem

The tenth problem is that not being committed to one mazhab will cause one to change the entire structure of one's Deen. This change will be slow and gradual and will take place in stages. The first stage is where one will no longer remain committed to Deen since one's direction has been lost. One will no longer see the need to follow one mazhab, resulting in one beginning to personally choose the opinions in Deen which suit one's lifestyle or conform to one's personal interest.

The second stage is where there will be a gradual transformation in the value system, outlook and mindset which one had when he was ascribed to one mazhab. The third stage is where after a period of time, such an individual will no longer confine the mindset of free thinking to himself. Rather, he will influence his subordinates and circle of friends to adopt his idea of free thinking. The ill-effects of this will become apparent in every department of one's Deen, to such an extent that until and unless one does not get to terms with rationalising the laws of Deen and measuring them according to his personal level of reasoning, he will not see the need to follow it. The net outcome of this is that one's value system of Deen will resemble an enterprise being run on one's personal choice and opinion.

The method of education in the Mubaarak era of Rasulullah مَتَأَلِنَدَّمَايَدِوَسَلَرَ

In the era of the Sahaabah رَحَوَالَنَهُ بَعَنْهُ, the method of education was that people acquired the knowledge of Deen (the Qur'aan and Hadith) under the guidance of those who were learned in the various branches of Deen. Despite the Sahaabah رَحَوَالَنَهُ being fully conversant in the Arabic language, in matters of Deen they never adopted the approach of self-study and did not refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith. They were well aware of the grave warnings that have been sounded by Rasulullah مَرَالَنَهُ مَالَى in his Mubaarak Ahaadith for the one who treads on such a dangerous path, as well as the serious consequences of adopting such an approach.

In one Hadith, Rasulullah صَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَمَلَمَ is reported to have said: "The one who fabricates or concocts something in Deen and incorrectly attributes it to me, he has prepared his abode in the fire of Jahannum."¹

Generally people studying the Qur'aan and Hadith on their own reach incorrect conclusions and misinterpret the Qur'aan and Hadith. The outcome of this is that they present the wrong message of Deen to the Ummah together with attributing it to Allah Ta'ala and His Rasul صَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّمَ . Hence there is the great fear of them coming under the purview of the above mentioned warning of Rasulullah صَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَنَّمَ

Apart from this, Rasulullah صَاَلَنَدُعَلَنَهُ وَسَاَرَة foretold the coming of such times before Qiyaamah; where the true spirit of Deen that existed in the beginning of Islam will no longer remain. The caution that was exercised by the Sahaabah رَضَوَالَنَدُ عَنْمُ in Deeni matters will no longer be seen. People will refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith in sourcing out solutions for their Deeni problems. Nabi

وروي عن أبي مالك الأشعري أنه سمع النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول لا أخاف على أمتي إلا ثلاث خلال أن يكثر لهم من الدنيا فيتحاسدوا وأن يفتح لهم الكتاب يأخذه المؤمن يبتغي تأويله وما يعلم تأويله إلا الله والراسخون في العلم يقولون آمنا به كل من عند ربنا وما يذكر إلا أولو الألباب وأن يروا ذا علم فيضيعوه ولا يبالوا عليه '

"I particularly fear three shortcomings in my Ummah. Firstly, due to the abundance of material wealth and possessions, jealousy for one another will spread among them. Secondly, they will begin to freely discuss the Holy Qur'aan (without referring to the Ulama and the learned), whereas many meanings in the Qur'aan are such that they cannot be understood by anyone except Allah Ta'ala. (In regard to such verses), the well-versed scholars of the Book say: "We fully believe in it, and that it has come from Allah Ta'ala." (Thus how much more careful should the common people be.) Thirdly, the religious scholars will be neglected and ignored and people will not see the need to refer to them (i.e. people will adopt the approach of self-study in Deen and refer to the Qur'aan and Hadith directly)."

الترغيب و الترهيب رقم ١٧٦

The Harms of the layman referring directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith

On one occasion, a person came to Hadhrat Umar (موالله for some work. During the conversation, Hadhrat Umar (موالله asked him regarding the condition of the people in the land from which he had come. The person replied: "O Ameerul Mu'mineen, there is a great awakening among the people and people are learning the Qur'aan and referring to the Qur'aan directly in Deeni matters (i.e. without the guidance of the Ulama)." Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas روالله great in this gathering and upon hearing the statement of this person, he said: "I take an oath by Allah Ta'ala, I do not like that people begin learning and studying the Qur'aan by themselves." Upon this, Hadhrat Umar

After being reprimanded by Hadhrat Umar رَحْوَالِيَّفَعَنْهُ, Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas رَحْوَالِيَّعَنْهُا says: "I then went home extremely grieved and worried and said to myself: 'It seems that on account of my statement, I have fallen in the sight of Hadhrat Umar رَجَوَلْلَكُمُنَهُ and lost the lofty position I was enjoying." He further says: "After returning home, I rested on my bed, until the womenfolk of the house became concerned regarding my condition. It was not due to any ailment that I had fallen ill, but rather due to what had occurred during the conversation with Hadhrat Umar رَضَوَلْتُعَانُهُ عَنْهُ While I was in that condition, a person came to me and said: 'The Ameerul Mu'mineen has sent me to call you.' I then came out of my home and found Hadhrat Umar رَعَوْلَنَدُعْنَهُ there, waiting for me. He took hold of my hand until we were in seclusion. He then asked: 'What was it that you disapproved regarding the statement made by that man earlier?' I replied: 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen, if I have erred, then I seek the forgiveness of Allah Ta'ala and repent, and I am prepared to correct my stance according to what you advise me.' Hadhrat Umar نَعَوْلَتَهُعَنَّهُ said: 'No, rather tell me the reason for your disapproval.' I replied: 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen, the reason for me disapproving people referring to the Qur'aan directly is that they will begin to reach their own conclusions and formulate their own opinions in Deen. When this will happen, the outcome will be that each person will have his own version of Deen and confine the truth to what he feels. This will then lead to differences and dissension breaking out in the ranks of the Muslims (based on ignorance). The dissension will then lead to arguments and disputes and ultimately Muslims will be fighting with Muslims." Hadhrat Umar نوالله was greatly pleased with what Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas said and told him that he also felt the same way, though he رَضَالَتُعَنَّعُمَا hadn't expressed this to anyone till the time that Hadhrat Ibnu Abbaas المنتشفين had mentioned it.¹

Salafiyyat under the microscope

Salafiyyat is the latest trend in the world and although it has been given a Deeni body and form, it is bereft of the spirit and soul of Deen. After a lengthy period of twelve hundred years (during which the Ummah remained committed to the four mazhabs) this neomazhab made its appearance.

Most people ascribing themselves to this new mazhab wish to lead a free and unhindered life. They do not want to be bound by any restrictions which come in the path of their worldly interests. However, at the same time, their aim is to appear as Deeni committed people treading on the path of Deen. Similarly, they are greatly concerned that people do not alienate them from the rest of the Ummah or label them as "transgressors in Deen" on account of their laxity in Deen. Hence through directly referring to the Qur'aan and Hadith, they remain under the misconception that they are the only ones who are following Rasulullah that those subscribing to the four mazhabs are following their Imaams and not Rasulullah صَالَى لَنَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَهُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَهُ وَاللَيْهُ وَاللَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ وَالْعُالَيْهُ وَاللَيْ وَالَيْهُ وَاللَيْهُ وَالْعُ ال form. On the contrary, the Salafis and those who endeavour to break away from the mainstream of the Ummah have become victims of opposing the Sunnah in many branches of Deen.

They earmarked certain masaa'il from different mazaahib together with highlighting the source of those masaa'il from the relevant books of Hadith (e.g. Saheeh Bukhaari and Saheeh Muslim). Thereafter they impressed upon the Ummah that it is only their view that is correct and that every other view is incorrect. In doing so, they deliberately ignored the other authentic narrations which establish the practice adopted by the other mazaahib in that mas'alah.

Furthermore, in situations where the four A'immah do not "apparently" practise upon certain Ahaadith based on substantial proofs and reasons, they latched onto such Ahaadith and accused the A'immah of abandoning the Ahaadith of Rasulullah مَسَوَّاللَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ مَا Similarly, we notice that wherever differences in masaa'il exist among the Imaams, they promoted independent research and study and allowed choosing whichever view one feels to be correct.

The purpose of Salafiyyat

After a thorough study and examination of this new mazhab called Salafiism, one reaches this conclusion that the purpose and aim of those who were responsible for spreading this mindset in the world in the beginning of the 12th century was:

- 1. To create internal fights and dissension in the Ummah, especially amongst those who ascribe to the four Imaams.
- 2. To cause the minds of the Muslims to be stormed by suspicions and doubts in their Deen.
- 3. To remove the confidence of the people in the A'immah and Aslaaf.
- 4. To cause the masses to become liberal and lax in matters of Deen and to pick and choose the opinion of that Imaam which conforms to their personal reasoning.

In order to accomplish their mission, the plan of action which they executed was:

- 1. They used the differences between the four mazaahib as a basis for creating confusion and doubts.
- They invited towards practising upon isolated opinions (Shaaz Aqwaal) which oppose the mainstream view of the Ummah.
- 3. They allowed the masses to randomly choose from different mazaahib and to abandon blindly following one mazhab.
- 4. They promoted the concept of "rationalizing Deen to suit contemporary times".

- 5. They encouraged the masses to refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith in finding Deeni solutions to modern day problems.
- 6. They exhorted the masses to reinterpret the Qur'aan and Hadith to fit contemporary situations.

Some of the views to which they have ascribed themselves and very staunchly advocate are as follows:

- Raf'ul Yadain (raising the hands when going into ruku' and getting up from ruku'). This conforms to the Shaafi'ee and Hambali mazhab. According to the Maaliki and Hanafi mazhab, the hands are only raised at the beginning of the Salaah (Mughnil Muhtaaj 1/388 ; Al-Mughni Libni Qudaamah 1/ 171 ; Haashiyatud-Dasuqi 1/ 396 ; Shaami 1/ 506)
- Aameen bil Jahr (reciting the Aameen aloud). This conforms to the Shaafi'ee and Hambali Mazhab, contrary to the Maaliki and Hanafi Mazhab. (Mughnil Muhtaaj 1/379; Al-Mughni Libni Qudaamah 1/ 162; Haashiyatud-Dasuqi 1/ 398; Shaami 1/ 492)
- Jama' bainas Salaatain (joining Salaahs during a journey). This conforms to the Maaliki, Hambali and Shaafi'ee mazhab, contrary to the Hanafi mazhab. (Mugnil Muhtaaj 1/603 ; Al-Mughni Libni Qudaamah 1/131 ; Haashiyatud-Dasuqi 1/584 ; Shaami 1/381)

- Placing the hands on the ground before the knees when going into sajdah. This conforms to the Maaliki mazhab, contrary to the Shaafi'ee, Hanafi and Hambali mazhab. (Mughnil Muhtaaj 1/399 ; Al-Mughni Libni Qudaamah 1/ 199 ; Haashiyatud-Dasuqi 1/ 401 ; Shaami 1/ 497)
- 5. The postures of women in Salaah being exactly the same as the postures of men in Salaah. This does not conform to any of the four mazaahib. Hence, they have omitted many Ahaadith in this regard. (Majmoo'ul Fatawa 3/343; Al-Mughni Libni Qudaamah 1/ 258; Haashiyatud-Dasuqi; Shaami 1/ 504)
- Wadh'ul Yadain 'Alas-Sadr (placing the hands upon the chest during Salaah). This does not conform to any of the four mazaahib. (Majmoo'ul Fatawa 3/187; Al-Mughni Libni Qudaamah 1/ 140; Haashiyatud-Dasuqi; Shaami 1/ 486)
- 7. Masah upon ordinary socks. This does not conform to any of the four mazaahib. (Masah alal Jowrabain by this humble author pg. 58/59)
- Performing eight rakaats of Taraweeh. This does not conform to any of the four mazaahib. (Khairul Masaabeeh fi Adadit Taraweeh pg. 42)
- 9. Three talaaqs issued at once being regarded as one talaaq. This does not conform to any of the four mazaahib. (Al-Aa'laamul Marfoo'ah fi hukmit talaqaatil majmoo'ah by Shaikh Muhaddith Habeebur Rahmaan A'azami (زَحَمَةُ أَلَقَهُ)

 They broke away from the Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah in regard to certain beliefs in Deen e.g. Istiwaa 'Alal-Arsh. (Aqeedatu Ahlis Sunnah wal Jamaa'ah by Shaikh Uthaymeen pg. 11)

The essence of Salafiyyat

In essence, this mazhab is an assortment of the four mazaahib blended with personal opinions. Hence, wherever one is faced with differences among the A'immah, he is at liberty to hop from one mazhab to another and choose what appeals to his reasoning. If anyone dares to raise an objection against him, he defends himself by quoting the Hadith of Rasulullah مَرَالَسَنُمَايَدِوَسَالَمَ

Hadhrat Abu Hurairah حَكَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَّرَ reports that Rasulullah صَكَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَرَ said, "If a Mujtahid employs Ijtihaad when issuing a verdict and he reaches the correct conclusion, he will receive a double reward. And if he employs Ijtihaad and errs, he will receive one reward (from Allah Ta'ala)."

· جامع الترمذي رقم ١٣٢٦

However, in doing so, they have failed to realise that this Hadith is in relation to a Mujtahid (the one who posseses the capability of Ijtihaad in Deen, as was the position of the four Imaams and the Mujtahids of the previous eras of the Sahaabah and the Taabi'een). This Hadith does not relate to the layman. As far as the Ahaadith that relate to the layman are concerned, then they had ignored those Ahaaadith. There are many Ahaadith which prohibit the masses from tampering and interfering with the pristine Shari'ah of Islam. This is the clear message given in the following Hadith:

عن جابر قال خرجنا في سفر فأصاب رجلا منا حجر فشجه في رأسه فاحتلم فسأل أصحابه هل تجدون لي رخصة في التيمم قالوا ما نجد لك رخصة و أنت تقدر على الماء فاغتسل فمات فلما قدمنا على النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم أُخبر بذلك قال قتلوه قتلهم الله ألا سألوا إذا لم يعلموا فإنما شفاء العي السوال إنما كان يكفيه أن يتيمم و يعصب على جرحه خرقة ثم يمسح عليها و يغسل سائر جسده .⁽

Hadhrat Jaabir رَحَوَلَيْهُ reports that they were once on a journey when a person amongst them was struck by a rock and suffered severe head injuries. He then experienced a wet-dream (thus requiring ghusl). So he asked some of his companions if there was any concession for performing tayammum. They replied: "There is no concession for you since water is available." This Sahaabi thus took a bath and passed away (as a result of making ghusl). When they returned and Nabi

this, he said: "They killed him, may Allah kill them. Why couldn't they enquire from those who were knowledgeable when they did not know? The cure of an ailing person (an ignorant person) is to ask. It was sufficient for him to only perform tayammum and bandage his wound. He could have then rubbed his moist hand over it and washed the rest of his body."

From this Hadith we understand that it is impermissible for the layman to independantly apply Ijtihaad and try to reach any conclusion in Deeni matters. Otherwise, Rasulullah have first asked them: "Did you first apply Ijtihaad before you issued the verdict to him or not?" Whereas since it is not permissible for the layman to refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith and source out Deeni solutions, Nabi صَلَاَلَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ

Outcome

The result and outcome of Salafiyyat is that a fifth mazhab has been created in the world. The only difference between this fifth mazhab and the four mazaahib is that each individual will be the Imaam of his own mazhab which will be designed and tailored to conform to his reasoning. Hence, those who tread the path of Salafiyyat will only remain Muslims by name as they are bereft of the Sunnah of Rasulullah مَعَالَيَةُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمُ traditions, thus leading a carefree life governed by their whims and fancies.

وعن علي قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يوشك أن يأتي على الناس زمان لا يبقى من الإسلام إلا اسمه ولا يبقى من القرآن إلا رسمه مساجدهم عامرة وهي خراب من الهدى علماؤهم شر من تحت أديم السماء من عندهم تخرج الفتنة وفيهم تعود '

It is reported from Hadhrat Ali تَعَوْسَلَةُ that Rasulullah سَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوسَلَةُ said: "Soon a time will dawn upon the people when Islam will only remain in name and the Qur'aan will be confined to its text. The masaajid will be full of people but void of guidance. The Ulama (of that time) will be the worst people on the face of the earth. They will be the cause of mischief and corruption spreading in the earth and the corruption will return to them.

عن أبي ثعلبة في حديث طويل قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا رأيت شحا مطاعا وهوى متبعا ودنيا مؤثرة وإعجاب كل ذي رأي برأيه ^٢

Hadhrat Abu Tha'labah تَحَوَّلَيَّهُ عَنَهُ reports that Rasulullah سَيَّاتَدُ عَلَيَّهُ عَنَهُ said: "(A time will dawn upon my Ummah before Qiyaamah when) You will witness people fulfilling their greed, following their base desires, giving preference to dunya over Deen and being satisfied with their own reasoning and understanding."

· شعب الايمان للبيهقي رقم ١٩٠٨

^۲ سنن أبي داود رقم ٤٣٤١

Nabi صَالَاتُنْعَلَيْهِوْسَارَ has forewarned us of the time which we are presently witnessing. The preservation of the true spirit and teaching of Deen has become secondary and people have attempted to scuttle the smooth sailing ship of Islam by creating an environment of self opinion and deviation from the firmly established path of the pious predecessors.

Twenty five years of experience

Moulana Bitaalwi (an Aalim who did not subscribe to the following of any of the four mazaahib and eventually realised the damage and harm caused by biasedly speaking against the four Imaams) says:

"Many of the masses transgressed the boundaries of justice and finally the boundary of Islam itself."

He further writes in Ishaa'atus Sunnah:

"After twenty five years of experience, I have come to the conclusion that those who leave out the following of an Imaam or Mujtahid eventually leave the fold of Islam." 1

Following one of the Four Imaams of Fiqh

Q: Can you please present to me the proofs from the Qur'aan and Hadith that command us to follow one of the four Imaams of Fiqh? I believe that we are all followers of Rasulullah تعيَّاتُونَسَلَّهُ. Hence Allah Ta'ala obligated us to follow our beloved Rasulullah تعيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيُونَسَلَّهُ. Rasulullah تن العن المع said in his Mubaarak Hadith: "I leave behind two things; the Qur'aan and my Sunnah. As long as you hold firmly to these two; you will never go astray." From this Hadith, we understand that in solving our Deeni matters, we should directly refer to the Qur'aan and Hadith. However, if one is nonconversant in the Arabic language and thus unable to extract Shar'i laws from the Qur'aan and Hadith, he may refer to any Aalim of Deen. Why do people emphasise on following one of the four Imaams of Fiqh?

A: Allah Ta'ala commands us in the Holy Qur'aan to refer our Deeni matters to people of knowledge. Allah Ta'ala says:

فَسْتَلُوا اهْلَ الدِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ

Ask the people of knowledge if you do not know. (Surah Nahl, 43)

From this verse, we conclude that each person is not obligated to refer directly to the Qur'aan and Hadith. Rather, he is commanded to refer the matter to a specialist. Furthermore, "consulting a specialist in the field" is not confined to Deeni matters. Instead, it is a common principle which is adhered to amongst all classes of people in worldly matters as well. A patient who has to undergo a major heart operation refers to the most qualified and recognised heart surgeon available. Similarly, the victim who has to appear in court on account of alleged treason or suspected murder employs the services of a professional advocate to defend his case. Each of the above (the patient and the victim) understands the seriousness of the situation and the fatal consequences that follow. They thus hand the matter over to the most capable person. Similarly, we need to understand that in matters of Deen, we ought to follow those who will correctly guide us to the straight path. Allah Ta'ala says:

وَّاتَّبِعُ سَبِيُلَ مَنْ أَنَابَ إِلَىَّ

Follow the path of those who turn to Me. (Allah Ta'ala). (Surah Luqmaan, 15)

From this verse we understand that we are obligated to follow the one who will guide us to Allah Ta'ala. If one takes an incapable person as his guide and thus incorrectly practises upon the laws of Shari'ah, will such a person ever be absolved of his obligation in the court of Allah Ta'ala? Definitely not. Rather, he will be worthy of punishment for adopting the incorrect procedure in searching for the truth. Let us illustrate this point through a few examples from the Mubaarak life of Rasulullah سَيَّالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُوَسَلَّمَ Sahaabah نَعْمَالُهُ Some of these Ahaadith are:

- 1. Hadhrat Ali رَعَزَائِدُعَا يَدُوسَارَ reports that Nabi رَعَزَائِدُعَا يُدُوسَارَ had dispatched an army and he appointed an ameer over them. During the course of the journey, the ameer became angry with the army. He thus lit a fire and instructed the Sahaabah رَعَزَائِدُعَانُ to enter it. In substantiation, he quoted the Hadith of Nabi مَعَانَتُ which mentions that the ameer of the army must be obeyed. Some were contemplating over entering the fire whilst the others refused. When they reported the matter to Nabi مَعَانَتُ أَسَرَ وَعَانَتُ أَسَرَ أَسَرَ أَسَرَ وَعَانَتُ أَسَرَ أَسَرَ مَعَانَةُ مَعَانَ وَعَانَتُ أَسَرَ الله وَعَانَةُ مَعَانَةُ مَعَانَةُ مَعَانَةُ أَسَرَ الله addressed those who were contemplating entering into the fire saying: "Had you leaped into the fire, you would have remained in it till the Day of Qiyaamah." He further said to those who refused to enter the fire: "There is no obedience to the creation when it involves the disobedience of Allah Ta'ala. Obedience is only in good actions." ¹
- Imaam Sha'bi رَحْهَدُاللَهُ reports: Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim رَحْهَدُاللَهُ related to me that when the following aayah was revealed:

^١ صحيح البخاري رقم ٧٢٥٧ : عن علي أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم بعث جيشا و أمّر عليهم رجلا فأوقد نارا فقال ادخلوها فأرادوا أن يدخلوها فقال آخرون إنما فررنا منها فذكروا للنبي (صلى الله عليه وسلم) فقال للذين أرادوا أن يدخلوها لو دخلوها لم يزالوا فيها إلى يوم القيامة و قال للآخرين لا طاعة في معصية الله إنما الطاعة في المعروف.

Eat and drink until the white thread of dawn appears to you distinct from its black thread. (Surah Baqarah, 187)

"I took two lengths of thread (one thread was black and the other white). I then placed both the threads beneath my pillow. I stared at the threads for a long time, expecting to see the white thread becoming more clear and visible from the black thread, so that I may then abstain from eating. However, the entire night passed until I came to Nabi of the work of the morning and expressed what I had understood from the verse and what I had done during the night. Nabi مَكَالَنَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ smiled and remarked, "If the meaning of the verse is as you have understood, then your pillow is indeed very wide. For indeed the white and black threads mentioned in the verse refer to the brightness of the day and the darkness of the night."" ¹

3. Hadhrat Jaabir توالله reports that they were once on a journey when a person amongst them was struck by a rock and suffered severe head injuries. He then experienced a wet-dream (thus requiring ghusl). He thus asked some of his companions if there was any concession for performing tayammum. They replied: "There is no concession for you since water is available." This Sahaabi thus took a bath and passed away (as a result of making ghusl). When they returned and Nabi مَرَالَة عَلَيْهِ وَسَالَمَ was informed of this, he said: "They killed him, may Allah kill them. Why couldn't they enquire from those who were knowledgeable when they did not know? The cure of an ailing person (an ignorant person) is to ask. It was sufficient for him to only perform tayammum and bandage his wound. He could have then rubbed his moist hand over it and washed the rest of his body."¹

In the above-mentioned events, we notice that all the people involved were the Sahaabah of Rasulullah صَلَالَتُنْعَلَيْهُوسَاتُم , the first recipients of the Qur'aan. They were undoubtedly conversant in the Arabic language and referred to the Qur'aan. Furthermore, they were more knowledgeable than anyone of us present today. How was it that Rasulullah صَلَاتَتُ مَاتَكَ فَاتَهُ وَسَالَةُ disapproved of what they had done and in certain cases (as witnessed above), he even reproached them severely?

However, there seems to be an outward inconsistency between these above-mentioned incidents and similar incidents where Rasulullah سَاَلَتَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَاَرَهُ approved the actions of certain Sahaabah

' سنن أبي داود رقم ٣٣٦

رَحَوَلَيْهُعَنْهُ, though they erred in their judgement. Consider the incident of Bani Quraizah:

On the occasion of Khandaq, Nabi صَيَّالتَشْعَلَيْهِوَسَلَّمَ dispatched the explicit صَالَمَا لَنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمَ to go to Banu Quraizah. Nabi's صَالَا لَلْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمَ command to this group of Sahaabah رَضَاللَهُ عَنْمُ was that they should perform their Asr Salaah at Banu Quraizah. The Sahaabah رَضَاللَهُ عَنْهُمْ were en-route when the time of Asr was about to expire. A difference of opinion occurred between the Sahaabah رضواًلله عنه (with regards to the performance of the Asr Salaah. One group felt that the Asr Salaah should not be delayed, but should rather be performed en-route, prior to the time expiring. They understood the instruction of Rasulullah صَالَاللَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَم "None of you should perform his salaah except in Banu Quraizah" to mean, "Hasten so that you may reach Banu Quraizah at the time of Asr. Hence the Asr Salaah should not be made qadhaa." On the other hand, the second group of Sahaabah رَخَالَتُعَنَّمُ held the opinion that the Asr Salaah should be performed at Banu Quraizah, even though the Salaah is made qadhaa, as this was complying with the explicit command of Rasulullah صَرَّالِتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّر When Nabi صَرَّالِتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّر was later informed of the difference between the Sahaabah رَضَالَتُعَنُّمُ , he approved the actions of both groups.

The answer to this inconsistency is that there were Mujtahideen amongst the two groups of Sahaabah رَحَفَلَيْنَهُ عَنْهُ. Further, it is permissible for a Mujtahid to employ his Ijtihaad in reaching a conclusion. This answer can be understood from the Hadith of Rasulullah صَلَالَكُمُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَلَمَ

Hadhrat Abu Hurairah رَحَوَلَيْتُهَ has mentioned that Rasulullah مَرَالَيْتُعَايَدُوسَلَمَ said: "When a haakim (Mujtahid) issues a correct verdict by means of Ijtihaad, he shall receive two rewards and if he errs, he shall receive one reward."

From this Hadith, we learn that the right of making Ijtihaad is reserved for a Mujtahid. Other than a Mujtahid, any person who interferes in the matters of Deen and reaches an erroneous conclusion will be sinful on account of taking the law into his own hands. On the other hand, if a person refers the matter to a Mujtahid (one possessing the highest levels of understanding and capability) and he errs in his judgment, both will be absolved in the court of Allah Ta'ala based on the above Hadith. So we conclude that this Hadith and the Hadith of Banu Quraizah are with reference to a Mujtahid, not an ordinary muqallid.

At this juncture, the question that arises is 'Who will then qualify as a Mujtahid?' Before explaining the definition of a Mujtahid, it is imperative for us to comprehend the different levels and classes of people in regard to potentials and capabilities so that we will understand the exalted position of a Mujtahid in Shari'ah.

In regard to the knowledge of Deen, people can be categorized into three classes:

The first class of people are those who possess the basic knowledge of Shari'ah. (e.g. Aapas in the Maktabs or Huffaaz who have memorised the Qur'aan without studying its meaning). This category's obligation is to impart the basic fundamentals of Deen which they have learnt. Nabi سَالَاتَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَسَالَمُ

بلغوا عني ولو آية

Convey from me even if it be one aayah.

Since this class of believers have not acquired sufficient Deeni knowledge to guide others in all branches of Deen, it is impermissible for them to issue Fatwas and verdicts of Shari'ah. Furthermore, since the knowledge of Deen which they are imparting is confined and restricted, there is no possibility of any addition from their side. There is thus no fear of any change or distortion entering Deen. However, in the more intricate matters of Shari'ah, they should refer to those above them who are more qualified.

The second class of people are those who have pursued Deeni knowledge in Madrasahs and institutes under qualified, expert scholars. This class of people, after qualifying as Ulama, are in the position to issue Islamic verdicts. It should be borne in mind that this class of people, though far senior to the first class, are however limited in their capabilities and potentials which are far lower than the potential of the third class. The most that can be said about this class is that they have acquired the ability to access the meanings of the Qur'aan and Hadith and convey the message of both (Qur'aan and Hadith) to the Ummah. This is applicable to the Ulama of this era. As for the Ulama of the past, there were people amongst them who possessed great treasures of knowledge e.g. Imaam Tahaawi, Hafiz Ibnu Hajar Asqalani, Allamah Nawawi مَتَعَانَوْ etc. However, despite them having such vast knowledge, when it came to extracting the hidden meanings of the aayaat and Ahaadith, they admitted their incapability and saw the need of following the A'immah-e-Mujtahideen. Nabi

رب حامل فقه إلى من هو أفقه منه

There are many who disseminate Figh to those more learned than them.

رب حامل فقه ليس بفقيه'

There are many who possess the knowledge of Fiqh though they do not have the expertise in Fiqh.

From these Ahaadith, we understand that a person possessing a lot of Fiqh does not necessarily mean that he will be able to access the hidden meanings contained therein. Hence when it comes to the aspect of extracting laws and deducing masaa'il or finding amicable solutions for newly developed situations of contemporary issues, they are incapable of carrying out this great, mammoth task and are highly dependent upon the knowledge of the third class.

[·] سنن أبي داود رقم ٣٦٦٠، جامع الترمذي رقم ٢٦٥٦

The third class of people are the Mujtahideen. Their level of intelligence and understanding allowed them to deduce and source out numerous masaa'il directly from the Qur'aan and Hadith. To give us a glimpse of the calibre of the third class, the statement of Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal جَعَدُاَلَة is quite sufficient.

A man once asked Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal زَحَمُاللَهُ: "If a person memorises 100 000 Ahaadith, can he qualify as a Faqeeh (jurist)?" He replied: "No." The person asked: "What about 200 000?" The Imaam زَحَمُاللَهُ once again replied: "No." The man again said: "Then 300 000?" The Imaam زَحَمَاللَهُ peplied in the negative once more. The man said: "And 400 000?" This time, he shook his palm, indicating that such a person may probably now be a Faqeeh, fit enough to pass a Fatwa on his own accord.¹

We thus conclude that the right to directly deduce and extract masaa'il from the Qur'aan and Hadith is reserved for the Mujtahideen and exclusive to them. As for those lower than them in knowledge and understanding, and the laymen, it is incumbent that they follow the deductions of these Mujtahideen.

The Status of Taqleed

Q: What is the status of Taqleed (following one of the four Imaams of Fiqh) in Deen? Is it fardh, waajib, sunnah or mustahab?

A: Following one of the four Imaams of Fiqh viz. (Imaam Abu Hanifah, Imaam Maalik, Imaam Shaafi'ee and Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal (مَحْهَدُولَكُمُ) is waajib-li-ghairihi¹ (compulsory) in Deen. The reason for it receiving the status of wujoob is that without Taqleed of the four Imaams, one will not be able to correctly practise upon the entire Deen, especially in this time and age, where we see science and technology at its peak and new inventions and developments have become a norm. In short, the world has evolved to such limits which were never witnessed previously throughout the annals of human history. The progress and advancements of the world in the present era poses a host of challenges before the Ulama. It is on account of these events and developments that we find the masses constantly referring their Deeni matters and problems to the Ulama, seeking Islamic rulings and guidance.

¹ That which is compulsory on account of it being the only medium to fulfilling the Islamic injunction of Deen, though it is not directly established in any of the textual proofs of Deen viz. the Qur'aan and Hadith.

Subsequently, in the face of these challenges, we find the Ulama completely reliant and dependent upon the works of the four Imaams. They refer to the books of these Imaams who were blessed with such foresight and illuminated knowledge that despite living approximately thirteen hundred years ago, were able to produce accurate solutions for situations surfacing centuries later. The answers and solutions which they presented were directly sourced out from the Qur'aan and the Ahaadith of Rasulullah

We mentioned that Taqleed of the four Imaams is waajib-lighairihi. An elucidation of this statement is that though we do not find any explicit injunction, neither in the Qur'aan nor in the Hadith, specifically commanding us to make Taqleed of the four Imaams. We do, however, find the Qur'aan instructing us with two injunctions:

1. To follow those who are capable enough to guide us to Allah Ta'ala:

وَّاتَّبِعُ سَبِيْلَ مَنْ أَنَابَ إِلَىَّ

Follow the path of those who turn to Me (Allah Ta'ala). (Surah Luqman, 15)

2. To refrain from following our desires and temptations against the command of Allah Ta'ala:

وَلَا تَتَّبِعِ الْهَوٰى فَيُضِلَّكَ عَنُ سَبِيْلِ اللهِ

Do not follow your desires for that will cause you to go astray. (Surah Saad, 26) Keeping the above in mind, we conclude that since it is not possible to find any person in this time and age who possesses the capabilities of the four Imaams, it will definitely be waajib to follow any one of the four Imaams. Furthermore, apart from the four Imaams, we cannot find any Aalim (not even Imaam Bukhaari زَحَمَدُأَسَدُ and others) from the Salaf (Ulama of the past) whose mazhab has been entirely recorded, as was done with the mazhabs of the four Imaams.

Hence, if a person wishes to follow any other mazhab other than that of the four Imaams, it is highly possible that he will incorrectly practise upon the verdict of that specific Imaam due to the necessary details or conditions of his mazhab not being entirely recorded.

Secondly, there is a principle in Shari'ah: مقدمة الواجب واجب . i.e. the means which enables one to practise upon an injunction of Shari'ah also receives the status of that injunction. Hence, if an injunction is waajib, the path leading to it will also be regarded as waajib. By the same token, if an injunction is fardh, the means enabling one to complete that fardh will also be considered as fardh.

Furthermore, if there is only one possible means or method of fulfilling an injunction of Deen, adopting that method will be waajib to a greater degree, since there is no alternate method for fulfilling that injunction.

Let us illustrate this principle through an example. Consider the injunction of Hajj. The obligatory action is that of Hajj. However, Nabi صَالَتُنْعَانِيُوسَالَة commanded that Hajj is waajib only on that person who possess الزاد و الراحلة (a conveyance and provisions). This command of Rasulullah عَوَالَا is applicable to those who live in Makkah Mukarramah and the surrounding areas, for whom travelling upon camel-back with little provisions is possible. As for those who live thousands of miles away from the Holy Lands and require transport by sea or air, Hajj will be waajib subject to them affording a plane ticket or a ship ticket with accommodation. In which Hadith do we find this mentioned? If these people living abroad possess a camel and little provisions, as is the case of those residing in Makkah Mukarramah, will we say that Hajj is waajib upon them as well? Obviously not! From this example, we understand that since one requires a plane ticket in order for him to perform Hajj, the obligation of Hajj is subject to one being able to afford it. In the absence of this, all the Ulama agree that Hajj is not obligatory.

Despite the obligatory action of Hajj being one and the same for both people, due to the required means of both differing, the cause for its compulsion will differ. It will be impossible for one living abroad to fulfil the injunction of Hajj by merely depending on a camel and meagre provisions.

Similar is the case of Taqleed in this age and time. Since this is the only practical solution in order for one to practise on the entire Deen, one will have no choice but to follow one of these four illustrious Imaams.

In the past, there were many other Mujtahideen who were the contemporaries of these A'immah, such as Muhammad bin Sireen, Hasan Basri, Sufyaan Thowri حَجَهُوالَنَّهُ etc. who were blessed with the highest levels of intelligence and understanding, enabling them to deduce injunctions directly from the Qur'aan and Hadith. People would also refer to them in their Deeni matters, thereby absolving themselves of their obligation through referring to the Ulama in their Deeni matters. However, with the passage of time, the emergence of people possessing the calibre of knowledge of these illustrious Imaams ceased, thus leaving the Muslims with no choice but to refer to the works of their predecessors. Subsequently, when we search the works produced by these great Imaams, we find that besides the four famous Imaams, very little remains of the works of other Imaams in relation to Figh. Furthermore, the principles and governing rules that these four Imaams had laid out are such that they cover all situations that arise, whereas the other Imaams had not compiled such principles. In addition to this, the students of these four Imaams flourished and imparted the teachings and lessons of their Ustaadhs to the various quarters of the Muslim world. This allowed the Figh and mazaahib of these four Imaams to become common and widespread amongst both the learned and common folk. Accordingly, these four mazaahib and schools of Figh became the subject matter of study and research and great scholars adopted these mazaahib as their school of Figh since the deductions of these Fuqahaa covered all aspects of life.

When practising one of these four mazaahib is the only possible way for us to practise on Deen entirely, following one of the four mazaahib will thus become compulsory; not because following these A'immah is an explicit injunction in Deen, but because there is no other route which one can adopt whereby he will be able to practise upon the entire Deen without omitting anything. This is the meaning of waajib-li-ghairihi. (Since following the entire Deen is dependent upon Taqleed, it is afforded the status of waajib-lighairihi.)

When we examine the lives of these four Imaams, the glaring feature that we notice is that they strictly adhered to the Mubaarak in every facet of their lives. They صَبَأَلَنَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ in every facet of their lives. They could be aptly described with the following words: "They were a complete personification of the Sunnah of Rasulullah سَيَا إِلَيْتُ عَلَيْه وَسَلَمَ every walk of life." If per chance one has to come across any situation where their mazaahib apparently contradict certain Ahaadith, he will certainly find sufficient substantiation through other Ahaadith, coupled with accurate reconciliations with the Ahaadith which are seemingly not practised. Their approach to the Qur'aan and Hadith in deducing masaa'il was one strictly governed by principles of Deen. It was certainly not an approach of personal opinion or an approach of 'pick and choose', as is witnessed in this day and age. Hence, one can safely reach the conclusion that these four A'immah (whose mazaahib stood the test of time for approximately thirteen centuries) are worthy of emulation in guiding us to Allah Ta'ala and His Rasul صَيَّالَللَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ

Thirdly, the sole purpose for Allah Ta'ala creating us and sending us to the world is for us to worship Him. Everything else besides His worship (e.g. eating, drinking, transacting, building homes, etc.) is secondary. Since man cannot exist in this world without certain basic requirements (e.g. air, water, food, etc.) Allah Ta'ala has made these requirements easily available to man so that no obstacle remains in the path of him worshipping his Creator.

Similarly, we find that in accordance to the urgency of a need, provisions are made. Consider the most vital requirement of human life i.e. air. Man is in need of air for every moment of his life. Hence Allah Ta'ala has made this available everywhere. All that one is required to do is breathe. Similar is the case of food, water, etc. We should understand that when Allah Ta'ala undertook the responsibility to provide for the material needs of man, then it is unimaginable that Allah Ta'ala will not make adequate provisions for the Deeni needs of man. All these worldly arrangements and provisions we see around us are only facilitated so that man could serve his Creator, Allah Ta'ala, in ease and comfort. Thus the object is not food and drink but is instead the worship of Allah Ta'ala (practising upon Deen). Accordingly, in order to make the purpose of man's creation possible, Allah Ta'ala allowed great luminaries to be produced in the form of the A'immah-e-Mujtahideen. Hence, we notice that for approximately thirteen centuries, the Ummah has held on to the mazaahib of these four great A'immah, thereby fulfilling the purpose of their creation.

Furthermore, consider if one hundred people in this time and age begin extracting laws from the Qur'aan and Hadith, each one presenting his personal viewpoint of a verse to the public and with each person reaching different conclusions. Will we regard this as a service to Deen or a disservice? Will Allah Ta'ala entrust us to our limited understanding and logic? If one prefers to adopt this method in matters of Deen, we can well imagine the detrimental outcome and grave consequences it will create in the Ummah, let alone the confusion and perplexity it will produce in the mind and heart. Thus, the safest and most cautious path to adopt would be to follow one of the four great Imaams of Fiqh whose lessons and teachings have been thoroughly scrutinised and researched. In fact, it would not be incorrect to declare that in order for a Muslim to be able to practise Deen entirely, it would be waajib for him to align himself to one of the four mazaahib.

May Allah Ta'ala bless each one of us with the true understanding of Deen and the ability to follow in the footsteps of our pious predecessors.

Moulana Ebrahim Siyalkoti's ill-opinion of Imaam Abu Hanifah زَحَمَدُاًلَكَ

Moulana Ebrahim Siyalkoti (who was formerly one of the Ahle-Hadith) initially had an ill-opinion of Imaam Abu Hanifah جَعَدُلَكَ However, he thereafter began to have a lot of respect for Imaam Saheb. Moulana Ebrahim Siyalkoti writes regarding himself in his book, Tareekhe Ahle Hadith:

"When looking for some mas'alah, I went through the books on the shelf. I started checking the view-point of Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُالَتَهُ. After going through different books, some reservation settled in my heart regarding Imaam Abu Hanifah رَحْمَدُالَتَهُ.

The effects of the evil thoughts within me could be felt around me. It was broad daylight, yet I felt darkness enveloping me. The blackness was thick and compound, similar to the description given in the aayat: 'Darkness one over the other.' At that time, Allah Ta'ala inspired my heart: 'This is the outcome of your ill-feelings for Abu Hanifah ازحمَدُالله Repent for your wrong!''' Moulana Ebrahim continues: "I started reading the words of istighfaar and the darkness immediately disappeared. In fact, it was replaced with such brightness which outshone the daylight. From then onwards, my respect and confidence for Imaam Abu Hanifah to grow. I say to those who (don't listen to me and) continue reviling Abu Hanifah رَحَمَّاً لَمَّةَ, my example with you is the very same which Allah Ta'ala had said to the ones who denied the incident of Me'raaj.

اَفَتُمْرُوْنَهُ عَلَى مَا يَرْي

So will you doubt that which he was shown (Surah Najam, 12)

Hence it is futile for anyone to argue with me regarding something which I witnessed in a wakeful state while I was in my senses." (Ikhtilaaf-e-Ummat and Siraat-e-Mustaqeem 2/49)

Moulana Ebrahim Siyalkoti prepared his book, Tareekhe Ahle Hadith, in which he compiled a brief history of the seniors of the Ahle Hadith as well as some of the previous Muhadditheen. The book includes Imaam Abu Hanifah ترجيدُ amongst the previous senior Muhadditheen. The All-India Ahle Hadith Conference of Delhi was impressed with the book and wished to distribute copies of it. They had one reservation: The name of Abu Hanifah رَحِيدُ أَسَدُ amongst the Muhadditheen!? They asked Moulana Ebrahim to delist Abu Hanifah مَنْ مَعْدَ مَعْدَ أَسَنَا (without the section of Abu Hanifah رَحِيدُ أَسَدُ (an never be alienated from the fraternity of the Muhadditheen. ¹
